CONFERENCE SESSIONS CONVENE

FLOOD WATERS SOON TO SWEEP FINE FARM DISTRICT

Noted Ministers And Laymen Meet In 55th Session

Nearly One Hundred Delegates From Primitive Methodist Churches Here

OFFICERS ELECTED AT OPENING SESSION

Different Committees Appointed; Shamokin, Pa., Next Meeting Place

Pennsylvania conference of the Primitive Methodist church opened their 55th annual session yesterday afternoon in the Maitland Memorial Primitive Methodist church on South Mill street.

Ministers and laymen from most of the churches are in attendance at the session, which will meet every day for morning, afternoon and evening meetings. The closing session will be held on Monday afternoon, May 2. The Pittsburgh conference represents churches from three districts of Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio, as well as the western district in Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa. Nearly 75 ministers and laymen are present at the opening session of the conference.

The evening sessions are being conducted as evangelistic meetings, in which several noted leaders of the church preach stirring sermons each evening. Rev. S. T. Nichols, D. D., of Philadelphia, who is president-at-large of the general conference, preached last night. His topic was "Jesus, the Light of the World".

This evening the retiring president of the conference, Rev. W. J. Waters, of Nanticoke, Pa., will preach. The services will be in charge of Rev. E. J. Zuch of Pittsburgh, Pa. On Friday evening a big popular missionary meeting is planned, at which Rev. Amos Bradley, a foreign missionary who is

Reprieve Granted Slayer In Boston, Probe Is Ordered

Man Sentenced To Die In Chair Confesses Part In Payroll Murder

(International News Service)

BOSTON, April 26. — On the heels of the postponement of the execution of Celestino Madeiros, Wrentham bank cashier slayer, today came steps looking to a review by Governor Alvan T. Fuller of the case of Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti.

Madeiros confessed to the paymaster holdup and double killing in South Braintree for which Sacco and Vanzetti were convicted and the Governor and his council decided that Madeiros would be needed for an investigation by the executive.

This was the fourth reprieve granted Madeiros in the strangest case on record in the criminal history of Massachusetts. The respite is until the week of July 10th, the date set for the Sacco-Vanzetti execution.

Another convict stepped into the tangled picture today. William Weeks was reported to have told counsel for Sacco and Vanzetti that Madeiros, with whom he was involved in several holdups, spoke to him several times of the South Braintree killings.

The alleged confession of Madeiros was discounted by the courts however.

Church Fight Opens To Oust Rev. Zultner From His Pastorate

Preliminary Injunction Granted On Petitions Of Church Members

Claim Resolution Passed Dismissing Pastor, But He Would Not Be Fired

In injunction proceedings filed in the Lawrence county courthouse today, Rev. Johann Zultner, pastor of the First Sibenburger-Sachen Evangelical Lutheran Saint Paul's church of Ellwood City is restrained from appearing in or conducting services in the church and a permanent injunction is asked to prevent his doing so in the future. A temporary injunction is granted, with a hearing for the final action set by Judge R. Lawrence Hildebrand for Tuesday morning, May 3, 1927, at eight o'clock, Eastern Standard time.

The cause for the injunction action seems to have risen out of a church fight in which it is charged that the Rev. Zultner has conduct-

Gin And Jealousy Blamed For Death Of Film Actor In Hollywood

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, April 28.—Gin and jealousy. This combination together with a convenient automatic, according to police, resulted in the death of Tom Kerrick, 32, film cowboy. His wife, Sarah, occupied a jail cell today, charged with shooting her husband—the climax of a gay party in Kerrick's Hollywood home.

Four other persons, all motion picture "extras," are held as material witnesses.

The county grand jury will shift the facts in the case when it meets today. So far questioning has produced nothing but a mass of conflicting stories.

Police sail all those quizzed were so intoxicated no coherent story of the shooting could be obtained.

Phosphorus Explodes In Youth's Pocket, Theatre In Panic

(International News Service)

HADDON HEIGHTS, N. J., April 28.—Franklin Dibert, 16, today is nursing a severe gash in his leg and blaming his high school chemistry experiments for a near panic caused in the Highland theatre last night when a bottle of phosphorus exploded in his pocket.

As he and about 200 other watched the feature picture the bottle exploded, ripping his clothing to pieces. The crowd started to stampede for the doors but was quited by ushers.

Norman Peters, 32, of East Stroudsburg, Pa., who was seated next to Dibert also suffered cuts on the legs.

Hunt Strangler In Philadelphia; Woman Murdered

Strangler Slays West Philadelphia Woman In Home; Robbery Is Motive

WOMAN SURPRISES "KILLER" IN THEFT

Police Throw Dragnet Over Eastern Section Of State For Slayer

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28.—Police nets are being thrown around various Eastern cities today in an effort to capture the strangler who fatally attacked and robbed Mrs. Mary McConnell, 63, in her home in West Philadelphia. The crime links the man definitely to the strangling of seven other women here, police said and with cases on the Pacific coast.

Mrs. McConnell was cleaning upstairs when the attacker entered by a rear door. His description given by a neighbor was that of a man about 45, thin and somber-faced.

The man evidently was under the impression no one was at home and began to rifle bureau drawers when he was interrupted by Mrs. McConnell, police believe. He immediately felled the woman then garrotted her with a stocking which was found tightly knotted and entwined around her neck, police said.

The strangler took several diamond rings and a diamond-studded wrist watch. He then calmly walked out the front door.

William McConnell, the woman's husband is a traveling salesman, and at present is somewhere in Pennsylvania. Radio stations broadcast a report of the crime and asked hotels to find McConnell. A description of the strangler was sent to all police stations in the East.

Police say the strangler's method is to go to a house with a "For Sale" sign on it, gain entrance then ransack the house after killing any occupant found in the house.

Lewis Arrives In Pittsburgh For Coal Conference

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 28.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, came to Pittsburgh today to get first hand information on the trend of the bituminous coal suspension in Western Pennsylvania.

Soon after his arrival Lewis went into conference with Philip Murray, vice-president, and Willis Searles, editor of the United Mine Workers publication.

Bank Embezzler In Under Bail

William Wrigley Offers President Coolidge Use Of Fine Summer Mansion

Green Gables, Palatial Home Of Wrigley At Lake Geneva Offered

Site Would Make Ideal Spot For Vacation; Plenty Of Fishing

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 28.—Lake Geneva, where President Coolidge may spend his vacation, is three hours distant by rail from Chicago and some 80 miles by automobile over smooth concrete highways.

The lake affords almost ideal facilities for boating and bathing and William Wrigley has a small fleet of sail and power craft in addition to his palatial yacht, which it is reported will be at the disposal of the presidential party if the site is selected for this summer's vacation.

The house itself offers all that could be desired in privacy and comfort and numbers among its interesting features, a bathroom, the fixtures of which are gold plated.

Green gables, as Wrigley has named the estate, is a three-story, 20 room house, painted white with green trimmings. It is set far back amid the shade of giant oaks, maples and lindens.

The estate lies about a mile and a half from the town of Lake Geneva. It is hidden just off a winding highway that curves through a deep forest. A massive iron gate bars the entering road from the public.

Just inside the entrance is a ten room cottage, used on occasions by relatives and friends of the Wrigleys. This house would be ideal for members of the president's staff, it was stated.

Mrs. Morrow Has Narrow Escape From Lightning

Earring Is Knocked Out And Hands Are Scorched By Electric Fluid

Home of J. J. W. Morrow, who resides on the County Line road and right beside the New Castle Fair Grounds, was damaged to some extent on last Tuesday afternoon, when lightning struck a pine tree beside the house and communicated with the house through the medium of the electric wires.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow were in the act of coming into the city. Mrs. Morrow was seated at the window next the tree that was struck waiting to make the trip.

When the lightning struck the tree and then swung into the house over the electric wiring, several windows were broken, including the one where she was seated. One of Mrs. Morrows' ear rings was knocked from her ear and her hands were scorched up by the electricity. All the electric wires were burned out and a fire started at the board on which the electric meter was located. Fortunately this was put out without any serious resulting loss. Mr. Morrow escaped injury.

Suburban Resident Is Shot To Death Near Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 28.—Ambushed by two unidentified assassins as he approached his home in Stowe township near here early today, Carmen Alfarone, 35, was shot to death.

Township authorities were informed that the men accosted Alfarone as he neared his home. The three engaged in a few heated words and Alfarone started for home. Two shots were fired and he fell, wounded near the heart.

Neighbors found Alfarone alive, but he refused to say anything about the shooting. He died in the Ohio Valley hospital shortly afterward without revealing the assassins' motive.

State Ends Testimony In Snyder-Gray Trial, Widow To Take Stand

Court Is Adjourned Today Immediately After State Closes Case

Defense Expected To Call Mrs. Snyder To Stand As First Witness

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

COURTHOUSE, LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., April 28.—The state rested its case at the trial of Mrs. Ruth Brown Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, charged with the murder of the woman's husband, Albert Snyder, at 12:27 p. m. and immediately Judge Townsend Scudder, presiding, adjourned court until four p. m. this afternoon.

Edgar F. Hazelton, counsel for Mrs. Snyder, requested the adjournment, in order that he could prepare for the opening of the defense of "the defendant Snyder."

Mrs. Snyder is expected to be the first witness for the defense. Hazelton announced that she would positively take the stand. This was the ninth day of the trial, five of which had been taken up in tedious examination of talesmen for jury duty.

Haddon Gray, of Syracuse, N. Y., close friend, but no relative of Henry Judd Gray, was principal witness at this morning's session. He testified that he had helped Henry Judd Gray arrange an elaborate alibi, tending to show that Judd was in Syracuse, on the night he admits he murdered Snyder.

Whether Mrs. Snyder would go on the stand this afternoon or the first thing tomorrow morning was problematical. It has been decided that she would be the first witness, but the late afternoon session may be taken up in argument and motions.

Three Trainmen Killed In Crash

Denver Bound Colorado And Southern Passenger Collides With Engine

NO PASSENGERS AMONG INJURED

(International News Service)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 28.—Three trainmen were killed and a fourth sustained serious injuries today when a Denver-bound Colorado and Southern passenger train collided with a light engine near Uva, 30 miles north of here.

The dead:

J. R. Morgan, passenger engineer.

C. B. Carter, engineer.

C. H. Morgan, fireman.

E. Wildman, fireman of the passenger train jumped when he saw a crash was inevitable. He incurred serious injuries but it is expected he will recover.

None of the passengers were injured.

A misunderstanding of orders is believed to have caused the collision.

Man Facing Trial For Murder Is Known Here

Henry Judd Gray, New York Corset salesman, now on trial for the murder of Albert Snyder, husband of his paramour, is known in this city, having been a frequent visitor at local stores for a number of years up until five or six years ago when he severed his connections with the Model Brassier Company, for which concern he visited this city and went with Benjamin and James, for which concern he covered the state of New York.

Buyers for a number of local concerns were surprised, when it finally dawned on them that the Henry Judd Gray, who visited them in years past, was the same man held for murder. In fact it was somewhat of a shock to most of them, when they realized that the man, concerning whom such sordid stories are being circulated, was the dapper, pleasant salesman, who sold them goods.

One of the number of local buyers acquainted with this now famous character stated this morning that "Mr. Gray was above the average type of salesmen. He seemed of a higher type, very refined and always immaculate in appearance. He was not of the assuming type of salesmen, that you often meet. In fact he impressed you as being a very nice gentlemanly type of man. It was unbelieveable to me, as well as others in the city, who met him in a business way, that he could have become involved in such an affair. There was nothing about him that would indicate that he might be connected with an affair of this kind."

Coal Situation Is "Quiet", Says John L. Lewis

John L. Lewis Reaches Pittsburgh To Gain First-Hand Information

ATTACKS POLICY OF PITTSBURGH COAL

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 28. — The bituminous suspension situation, from the standpoint of the United Mine Workers, "is everything that could be desired," and the unionists are prepared to wage indefinite war against operators who stand between them and a higher scale of working wages, John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers of America, said here today upon his arrival from New York.

Centering his comment on the Pittsburgh Coal Company, which he terms the leader of opposition to the mine workers, Lewis charged that the company, despite the fact that their labor turnover for the month of March was 260 per cent, "the largest turnover that has ever been recorded in the history of the United States or any other country" was consistently suffering an appalling loss in its efforts to destroy the union.

"The average daily production of the Pittsburgh Coal Company since Jan. 1, 1927 to April 19, has been about 63,000 tons a week at their 18 non-union mines," Lewis said, while the daily reports which the company has given to newspapers was branded as "misleading and untrue."

The suspension situation as a

Council Favors Butterfat Tests

Ordinance Provides For Certain Amount In Milk Sold Here

Councilmen D. O. Davis and Genkinger today placed themselves as favoring the examination of milk to determine the amount of butterfat milk sold in the city contains, they declared today as a result of the recommendation presented by Dr. W. L. Steen, health officer, in his annual report.

Councilman Genkinger, months ago, urged that an examination be made inasmuch as it would result in more nourishment in milk sold here, he declared at the time. Questioned again concerning his stand, Genkinger declared: "I favor the tests."

Councilman D. O. Davis said that one or two tests had been made but that they had been discontinued. According to the milk ordinance it says:

"If a person accused of selling milk containing less than three and one quarter per centum of butterfat and less than 12 per centum of milk solids, shall furnish satisfactory affidavit that nothing has been added to or taken from the milk in question, which is otherwise pure and wholesome, and is not below three per centum of butterfat, no prosecution shall be instituted against such person."

Probabilities are that city council at their next meeting may discuss the recommendation formally and adopt plans whereby an examination of milk sold here will be made.

Refugees Leave Countryside To Be Sacrificed

To Blast Levee At Poydras At Noon Tomorrow To Save New Orleans

PROPERTY OWNERS TO BE INDEMNIFIED

Immediate Relief Fund Of $150,000 Raised By New Orleans People

By TARLETON COLLIER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW ORLEANS, April 28. —A green and fruitful countryside lay hushed in the sun of this April morning, waiting for the doom that has been decreed for it.

A pall of dust, beaten up from the highway in the hasty flight of its people, by their trucks, their trudging feet, the shuffling pace of their herded cattle, has settled over Poydras, where the engineers will break the levee at noon tomorrow and open a course over the fertile fields for the pent and raging waters of the Mississippi.

A group of newspapermen climbing to the top of the Poydras levee for a last look at the pleasant land, started into clumsy flight several buzzards which had been drawn there by the evil premonition of disaster. And that was all.

To Save City

Poydras and its surrounding country is being sacrificed that the greater New Orleans may be saved, and its air today was that of a lonely place, wistfully and inarticulately resigned to a dire fate. Most of the dwellers in the community had gone to New Orleans, where a teeming refugee camp has been established in the International Trade Exposition building.

Since Tuesday night the Poydras Pike had been a stifling course of heavy dust, kicked up by the exodus of the fugitives. The neat homes are closed and shuttered.

Not all of these homes were deserted placidly. There is about Poydras and its neighborhood a charm and grace of antiquity which Youngster 13 Weds Man 48 Years Old At Johnstown, Pa.

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 28. — Deserting her grade school classroom for housekeeping, Fern Garnet Wissinger, whose age the local school records place at 13, today was the bride of William Hazleton, 48.

The child bride, who until her marriage attended classes regularly in the sixth grade here, was married before an alderman, with the consent of her father, Sylvester Wissinger.

I often wish I had a heap of money, a lot of stuff that people label dough, I sit and think of what I'd do to spend it, of the things I'd see and where I'd go. I'd cross the seas and penetrate those places, that human step has seldom tread at all, I'd travel to the far off distant places, where telephones could never make a call. I'd have a yacht and several automobiles, the kind that mortals typify as class, the kind that takes a dollar of your money, each time you put your foot upon the gas. Now all these things I think that I'd be doing, but if I had the chance I cannot say, you see I never had a million dollars, its just a wish, its fifty six today.

Flood Waters Are Receding

Situation At Greenville, Mississippi, Said To Be Improving

(International News Service)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 28.—Boats to rescue hundreds of marooned persons whose homes were washed away yesterday when flood waters swept across four more Mississippi towns, left here today for Belzoni, Miss., and surrounding territory.

Answering the plea of Belzoni and the towns in that district Maj. C. H. Lee, third district engineer ordered the boats to proceed there before noon today.

Grave danger of a break in the Arkansas river levee at Pine Bluff was felt today. A trainload of sandbags were enroute to strengthen the weakening point. The water wore a sand boil in the levee and has threatened to wash away the top of the barrier.

Vicksburg today made arrangements to send relief to Belzoni and neighboring towns. Several boats now operating around Grenville will be loaded with food and sent to Belzoni before the day is over.

The situation at Greenville, Miss., was reported to be improving.

The amount of water pouring over the levee was gradually growing smaller and flood waters were receding.

REFUGEES LEAVE COUNTRYSIDE TO BE SACRIFICED

shows that many have lived, labored, loved, and died there. A cluster of crumbling brick huts, the former dwelling place of slaves of the great plantation that was the community's beginning stands not far from the spot of willows and smooth grass on the levee bank where the way is to be blasted for the flood.

And not far away are the red brick ruins of the lod Versailles plantation home, which seem hardly less ancient than the water oaks and their festoons of gray moss. Poydras is old.

Some Are Defiant

And it was accordingly not easy to win agreement of all persons in the settlement to desert their homes to the flood. Some of the most deeply rooted inhabitants in a flare of defiance refused to move. For the most part these have been won over to reason through intercession by influential neighbors, but it is known that there are many old irreconcilables, particularly in the parts of St. Bernard Parish away from the settlement.

"There has been some talk of danger of shooting when the engineers go to break the levee," said a prominent New Orleans civic leader. "We are hoping that everything has been worked out, and that with our assurances of ample indemnities, and of every possible means of relief, our friends in Poydras will be reconciled but we are not sure that this is completely so."

An immediate relief fund of $150,000 has been raised among 50 New Orleans bankers and business leaders. This matter of indemnity is necessarily unofficial at this state, and it will be largely defrayed by private purses.

Quaint Community

Some of the Poydras irreconcilables are known to be dubious about the situation. One of the interesting points is the levee at Poydras which is being blown to save New Orleans. It was constructed by Poydras people. It is all theirs, and it is a good one. As a matter of fact, it rises ten to twelve feet above the flood level, while the levee top at New Orleans is barely three feet above the rising water. There was a break at Poydras in the great flood of 1922, after which Poydras people had gone methodically about eliminating the danger of another disaster of the sort.

Poydras is a community of numerous churches, some of them quite old, and a fine school. One of the trucks serving the relief work was laden Thursday with desks and other equipment from the school, which is being transplanted in New Orleans, where the children will be assembled to continue their instructions as far as possible.

Historical Place

One of the Poydras property owners who will be injured most severely by the flood is Theodore Grunewald, the former hotel proprietor, who has developed one of the most beautiful estates in these parts at Poydras, with formal gardens, chickens to the number of 10,000 or so, flowers and all else that goes with a beautiful home. Yet Grunewald, looking to the protection of New Orleans as the most essential thing, was one of the most active figures in urging an artificial break at Poydras.

Poydras was named for Julien Poydras, the first poet and philanthropist of the Province of Louisiana when it was a possession of France. Julien Poydras was born in 1740, was a gallant figure, and wrote the first epic poem in Louisiana literature and founded an orphanage which has been one of the oudtstanding institutions of Louisiana. The people of New Orleans like to think that Julien Poydras, with his flaming devotion to the young city of his day, would have been with Theodore Grunewald and others who have worked assiduously for the sacrificial devastation of a village that one of the greatest cities in the world might be saved.

Renewed Hope

Nenewed hope that further disaster might be avoided came to hundreds of thousands in Louisiana today as the crest of the Mississippi flood reached Vicksburg, 400 miles above New Orleans.

Army engineers who are directing upwards of 50,000 men engaged in a heroic struggle to keep the river within threatened levees along its lower reaches, believe that barring heavy rains within the next three days, the last and most critical phases of the devastating flood may pass and spend itself through the artificial crevasse to be opened tomorrow at Poydras, ten miles south of here.

The most threatening situation today was at Angola, Louisiana, opposite the mouth of the Red river where the supreme effort of the defenders of New Orleans is being made to save the weakening levees.

The break at Angola would unleash the Mississippi river in measured stretches of Louisiana flats. Twelve thousand men organized in military units are employed in strengthening the levee lines, repairing wave washes and capping low stretches near Angola. Fifty barges are concentrated in the region to carry materials to the threatened sections.

Use Sand Bags

More than 5,000,000 bags of sand already have been placed in position along some 23 miles of dyke and millions of feet of lumber have been used in reinforcing walls.

"There is reason to be hopeful," said Major W. H. Holcombe, in charge of levee operations south of Vicksburg. "There is still possibility of breaks in the line above New Orleans where in some spots the levees are not quite so strong as those protecting New Orleans, but every hour that passes brightens the prospect that the weakest point may hold."

The Red river is rising between Shreveport and Alexandria, La., but the Army engineers anticipate this swell will reach the Mississippi eight or ten hours before the crest of the upper valley flood.

State engineers made final preparations today for the blasting of the levee at Poydras, La., ten miles below New Orleans. The crevasse is expected to carry off sufficient water to reduce the level at New Orleans at least thirty inches.

"Very material relief will be afforded by the Poydras opening to all points south of Baton Rouge and there is practically no cause to fear trouble below that point," Major Holcombe said after a careful study of river charts for the last 24 hours.

$200,000,000 Losses

Flood losses throughout the entire Mississippi system were estimated by Secretary Hoover today at approximately $200,000,000.

Two hundred thousand people are homeless or stranded on high ground without food, according to Hoover's latest reports.

Intensive organization for the relief of thousands forced from their homes in Saint Bernard and Plaquemines Parishes by the decision to open the Poydras levee were perfected today. Unbroken lines of refugees from the territory sacrificed to the safety of New Orleans still moved into the city, and more than 2,500 had arrived before noon.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT.

T. J. Fletcher 1813 Delaware avenue reported to the police this morning that he was driving north on Highland avenue at Grant street, when he was forced to make a sudden stop and a car bearing Pennsylvania license 153-189 following his machine jammed into the rear of his car. Slight damage was done to the latter car.

May Ban Left Turns At Square

P.-O. May Be Asked To Arrange Different System For Cars

Signal lights to control traffic from four directions have been erected at the Public Square and it is probable that they will be in operation before nightfall.

At noon today the light at the north end of the Diamond and North Jefferson street had been placed in operation and it is being regarded by citizens as a proper step.

According to Mayor Dunlap and Police Chief Dysart the P.-O. company will be asked to rearrange a system of parking interurban cars at the Square.

It is possible that Youngstown cars will journey east through the middle of the Square where they will take on and discharge passengers, then hie westward. West Side and Grant street cars would follow the same route.

Cars operating from the Cascade Park and other East Side points to the Square would loop the western end of the Square enroute west then hie eastward again.

It is possible that the center of the square will be closed to "left hand turns and only north and south traffic allowed through the middle of the square.

Large Audience Hears Dr. Neighbor

Evangelist Preaches Eloquent Sermon In First Baptist Church Wednesday Evening

The First Baptist church of this city was filled Wednesday evening with an appreciative audience to hear Rev. R. E. Neighbor, D. D., noted evangelist, Bible teacher and author.

Dr. Neighbor held his large audience in rapt attention for about an hour. He spoke from the Book of Ephesions and his forceful presentation of the scriptures and his eloquent and able manner of his delivery made a deep impression on all that heard him.

Preceding the sermon, a half hour of music by Dr. Neighbor's son, Robert and daughter, Miss Marie was given. Miss Neighbor who is a talented pianist played several numbers. Her rendition of old time hymns including "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Jesus Loves Me" with her personally improvised variations were a delight to all.

Mr. Neighbor who has studied the violin since childhood and who has completed his work with Leopold Auer, the world's greatest teacher of violin, played a number of hymns in a most masterly way. His concluding number "Nearer My God To Thee" was especially beautiful.

The neighbor evangelistic party are engaged in campaigns and conferences until next February.

Says Bell Too Ill To Serve Sentence

DINNER STORIES

No Need to Be Stingy

A London weekly tells about a Scotch chemist, to whom a poorly dressed woman had brought a prescription to be made up. As it was for a baby only twelve months old, the chemist was paying extra attention to weighing out the various drugs most exactly. Noticing this, the woman was annoyed with what she thought was his meanness. "Aw, mon," she exclaimed, in disgust, "you neednae be sae scrimped! It's fur a puir, mitherless bairn!"

Answers to Foregoing Questions.

1. President Harding.
2. Poison gas first used.
3. To efface.
4. Tigris and Euphrates.
5. Cuba and Haiti.
6. 1 Timothy, 1,8.

An Accommodation Train

The little boy had gone to the railway station to see his father off on a visit. Amid the usual farewells, kisses, and waving handkerchiefs, the train pulled out, and the youngster gazed after it until it had disappeared. Presently a locomotive came in sight with a train of the same length as the one that had taken his father away, and as is entered the station he clapped his hands excitedly. "Mamma! Mamma!" he shouted. "Here comes the train back again! Papa forgot something."

Shiftless Folk

A small Negro boy, aged six, in Goochland County, Virginia, accompanied his father to Richmond recently, his first visit to the city. "How did you like it in town?" some one asked him, on his return. "Hit's all right," replied the little darkey, "but jes' walkin' aroun'—Ah doan' see how dey makes a livin'."

Deaths Of The Day

Herbert S. Taylor.

Herbert S. Taylor, aged 52 years, died at his residence, 2037 Midlothan boulevard, Youngstown, O., Wednesday evening at 7:30, after an illness of four weeks.

Mr. Taylor was born at Portersville, August 25, 1875, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor. He had been a resident of Youngstown for about four years and was a carpenter by occupation. He was a member of Brownlee United Presbyterian church and the Carpenters Union of Youngstown.

Besides his widow he leaves three daughters, Gladys and Ruth, at home, and Mrs. A. C. Henley, of Struthers. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. Thomas Fisher and two brothers, Claire Taylor of East Brook, and A. J. Taylor of Lowellville.

Short funeral services will be conducted Saturday, April 30, at 2:30 p. m., from his late home. Services will be held later in the U. P. Church with Rev. H. C. Mc. Auley officiating. Interment in Lake Park cemetery.

Mr. McBride Buried.

Funeral services for George E. McBride took place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lyle Emery, of East Washington street. Rev. C. J. Williamson, Highland United Presbyterian church, was in charge. Friends of the family acted as pallbearers.

Mrs. Jennie Feola.

Mrs. Jennie Feola, aged 58 years, died Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Filomena Lombard, 204 South First street, after a lingering illness.

Deceased is survived by two sons, Angelo, of this city, and Lawrence, of St. Louis, and two daughter, Mrs. Mary Galean and Mrs. Lombard, both of New Castle, and nine grandchildren.

Announcement of funeral will be made later.

William Knowlson Funeral.

Funeral services for the late William C. Knowlson were conducted from his residence in Little Beaer township, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Davidson of the Presbyterian church officiating. The pallbearers were R. J. Nesbit, Charles Stewart, James Gilmore, Oscar Lipt, J. W. Lawrence and Homer Nicely. Burial was made in Little Beaver cemetery.

Mr. Clapie Buried.

Impressive funeral services were conducted for William J. Claple of Boyles avenue, late mail carrier of this city, Wednesday afternoon, at 3:30 in St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church, North street. The services were very largely attended, many people not being able to get in the church. A profusion of beautiful floral emblems bore mute evidence of the high regard and esteem held by the many friends and associates of Mr. Clapie.

The services were in charge of Rev. F. E. Stough, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. N. Miller, former pastor, now of Irwin, Pa. The pallbearers were: Edward Kemm, Fred Auberger, William Shipe, John Miller, William C. Hess and Everett Gibson. Burial was made in Greenwood cemetery.

The mail carriers of the city attended in a body.

John Graham.

John Graham, aged 65 years, died Wednesday, April 27 at his home in Pittsburgh. Besides his wife he leaves one son and one daughter and a sister, Mrs. Samuel B. Fowler, of Shenango township.

Funeral services will take place Saturday, April 30, at 2 p. m. from his home in Pittsburgh.

Carlyle F. Jones.

Carlyle F. Jones, aged 29 years, died Thursday morning at 2:30 at his home, rear 802 Pearson street after an illness of two weeks with pneumonia.

Mr. Jones was born in New Castle June 30, 1896 a son of Frank and Nellie Vogan Jones. He had lived all his life in this city. Besides his widow he leaves one son, Carl at home.

Funeral services will take place Monday, May 2 at 2 p. m. from the home, Daylight Savings Time.

ed services in the church in violation of the rules and regulations of the Evangelical Lutheran church, Augsburg Confession of the United Lutheran church in North America. It is also charged that the Rev. Zultner's administration has been "calumniatory and outrageous".

Police Break Up Meeting

According to the action filled, some "unhappy differences" arose in the congregation early in 1927, between Rev. Zultner and the majority of the church over the method and practice of conducting services. On or about March 6, 1927, 107 members of the church in good and regular standing, presented a petition to Wilhelm Schuller, president of the church council protesting the "calumniatory and outrageous" administration. Again on or about March 10, 25 of the members signed a petition to Wilhelm Schuller, demanding a special, extraordinary meeting of the church to be held according to Article 3, Paragraph 49. This meeting was held after the regular services on March 27, but before it got properly started, the chief of police of Ellwood City is alleged to have dispersed the meeting.

The members dispersed but gave notice that they were merely adjourning the meeting until April 3, at which time another meeting was held and a resolution was passed, dismissing Rev. Johan Zultner from the church.

Wouldn't Stay Fired

Rev. Zultner apparently would not stay fired, and continued his pastorate, and the upshot of it is that Martin Reiner, Martin Paul, John Paal, and Andrew Schenger entered injunction proceedings.

Whether or not the fight concerns Modernism and Fundamentalism is not apparent in the prayer of the petitioners. What the "calumniatory and outrageous" administration was, is not made clear, neither is it made clear in what manner the Rev. Johan Zultner diverged from the faith, doctrine, creed, discipline, rules and regulations of the Evangelical Lutheran church, Augsburg Confession of the United Lutheran church in North America.

These allegations will probably be brought out in the court proceedings on May 3, and in the meantime, the Rev. Zultner has a pastorate which he cannot serve, and the members of the church have a pastor they do not want to serve them.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 28.—Arrangements for the convention of the American Legion to be held in Paris September 19 to 23, are far advanced on both sides of the ocean, Howard P. Savage, Legion National Commander, announced today.

A five mile parade has been arranged for the opening day, its course leading through the heart of Paris, which will observe the occasion with a holiday. Marshal Foch and General Pershing will be in the reviewing stand.

Legion national headquarters will be maintained in the Hotel Crillon while the veterans are abroad, Commander Savage said. Business sessions of the convention will be held in the Palace Trocade, just across the Seine from Eiffel Tower.

MISS MARGARET BUXTON WEDS JOHN M. KROEN

A pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at two o'clock in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith, Dewey avenue, when Miss Margaret A. Buxton became the bride of John M. Kroen, son of Mrs. Minnie Kroen, North Beaver street. Rev. T. W. English, pastor of the Croton M. E. church, officiated with the ring ceremony. Yellow and white snapdragons were used effectively in decoration.

The bride was attractive in a gown of tan crepe and she carried a shower of butterfly roses. They were attended by Miss Verna Boyd, who was attired in green crepe, with a corsage of sweet peas and roses, and Russell Magill served as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles Campbell.

An elaborate wedding dinner for 24 guests supplemented the ceremony. Yellow and white tones prevailed in the appointments.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school class of 1919 and a graduate nurse of the Jefferson hospital of Philadelphia.

Mr. Kroen attended the high school and is employed with the Lehigh Portland Cement Company.

Dispensing with a wedding trip for the present, Mr. and Mrs. Kroen will reside at 916 Dewey avenue.

SIMPLER TAX LAWS

WITH the possible exception of the weather, nearly everybody complains about the complicated character of our tax laws. One might think that the smaller the income the less the difficulty in filling out the returns. But individuals as well as firms and corporations have their own troubles in making out the necessary blanks, and not infrequently are forced to seek expert advice. For this reason there should be much satisfaction over the announcement by Representative Green, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the appointment of an advisory committee to submit recommendations for simplifying the federal tax laws. Charles D. Hamel, chief of the simplication division of the joint congressional committee, will be chairman and his associates will be T. S. Adams, taxation expert of Yale University; A. A. Ballantyne, Dr. Thomas W. Page, of the Institute of Economics, and George May, all men with long experience in this subject.

It shows the progress we are making in the matter of tax reform when the simplification of the laws attracts quite as much attention as the possible reduction in the rates. There is no doubt that the next congress will be prepared to lower the income taxes, but in the meantime it is hoped that this committee will have made a general study of the subject with a view to specific sections of the law and administrative problems. There are to be no public hearings, but individuals, firms, accountants, lawyers and executives are invited to make suggestions in writing and send them to Room 452, House Office Building in Washington. Here is a chance for everybody to help in the drafting of the next tax bill. Probably if all the recommendations were to be adopted the new measure would look like a vast crazy-quilt, but, fortunately, each one will have to undergo the acid test before this committee of experts.

To tell the truth, the problem is not quite so simple as it may appear to many. In the making of laws repetitions are essential in order to make the meaning perfectly evident, and what seems like tiresome phraseology is often necessary from a legal standpoint. Even a misplaced comma can play havoc with a law. But there is a pretty general belief that the form of the income tax law can be greatly improved. It is difficult to make any tax bill universally popular, but it will be a satisfaction for most taxpayers to have one that they can understand without the aid of legal advisors.

RESTORING NATURE

BIRDS needing protection from collectors, hunters and trappers make a long list. Although the number and extent of the sanctuaries are being increased constantly, and many bird-lovers put out food in winter and houses in summer, certain varieties are in danger of extinction.

It is to be hoped that if the economic argument in favor of preserving birds of agricultural value will not prevail alone, their charm and beauty may give added weight.

However, this is but one of many problems of preservation troubling this country at this time.

If state and national legislation in recent years can be accepted as an accurate barometer of actual conditions the American people, as a nation, are bent on preserving the forests, protecting roadside flowers and greens, saving scenic water courses and falls, conserving game and fish, and shielding nature's beauty spots from the distiguring game and fish, and shielding nature's beauty spots from the disfiguring encroachments of civilization.

Had the United States early in its history known what it does today about the benefits of nature's gifts to man, there now would be no need for all this legislation, all this anxiety for the future, all this self-denial among those who would hunt, fish, chop and pluck.

The prodigality of the past has sentenced the present and the future to years of restocking of forest, field and stream, of reforestation, of purifying and restoring water sources of fresh water bodies, to repopulation of the air.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

As to the ways of a woman
The wisest of sages
In all the long ages
Was often perplexed,
And he never could say
What would please her one day
Would delight her the next.

No one has solved her,
A mystery still
She remains and she will.
To sinner and saint
On the land or the sea
Forever she'll be
A mystery quaint.

Yet man will serve her
And hunger to seize her
And struggle to please her,
Her frown he will fear.
A diver will go
For the corals below
Or a pearl for her ear.

What she will smile at
In others, if you
Venture to do
She will despise.
If you pursue her
Madly to woo her,
Elsewhere she flies.

Yet still the fact is
Man struggles to climb;
With courage sublime
Labors year after year
And all that's worthwhile
Is born of the smile
Of one woman so queer.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:53. Sun rises tomorrow 5:03.

We noticed an item where is stated that skirts will be fuller this spring and summer. We cannot imagine some skirts fuller than they are now, in fact we cannot figure out how the legs ever get into some of the skirts.

A big oil man told us yesterday that we would buy gasoline for fifteen cents a gallon before the summer is over. If that is true some of us will be able to eat at the same time we drive our cars.

There is only one New York and it is a great city. There are people who talk about what they have seen, but they are like the chap who was telling about the stuff he had looked at when some one asked him "Did you ever have the jim jams?" and when he answered that he had not he was told that he hadn't seen anything. If you have not seen New York you still have a lot of things to see.

Scientists say that in one instance digestion required 40 days, but don't tell what bride made the biscuit.

President Coolidge was in New York on Monday night for a short time and made a speech. I did not hear him as I was not invited to the place he spoke. I had another place to go anyhow. If he had been in New Castle I might have had a bid to hear him. Will see him in Washington next week.

Aimee McPherson's orchestra went on a strike in her temple as Los Angeles. Aimee accused the leader of the musicians of having "Secret Ambitions." He might have come back at her by telling her he did not try to fulfill them in Mexico.

Dr. Nickolas Murry Butler said a few days ago "If we could get rid of our ecclesiastical politicians" we would hasten the arrival of a universal church. What would a lot of people fight about then?

I met James Borland here in the Waldorf yesterday. "Jim" is going to let Franklin run itself for this week at least.

From what we hear in New York we will be willing to bet that the next president of the United States will not come from Ohio.

Aimee McPherson caused a revolt in her temple when she had her hair bobbed. She said she had it cut to keep it from falling out. That is the same excuse all sinners use to get their thatch removed, but experts say now cutting the hair does not keep it from falling out.

I had the pleasure of attending a banquet at the Friars club on Monday night which was attended by about seven hundred of the leading newspaper publishers of America. It sure was one large affair. It was an eating banquet and about all the actors and actorines in New York appeared on the stage of the club. Mayor Walker made a speech and welcomed the publishers most heartily. Charley Chaplin appeared in the flesh and he looked sort of shop worn to me. Harry Lauder also appeared in his kilts and told a few stories. He is just ending his 20th successful money taking tour of America. A new light, called the Rainbow Light was demonstrated. It is to be used for light on landing fields for aeroplanes and can be seen plain for 75 miles at night. The fun started at eight o'clock and was just going good about three o'clock in the morning. All the big stars were at this show to give the newspaper men an eye and earful. This is an annual affair and is given by M. Koenigberg, president of the King Feature Service. This service furnishes The News with Bringing Up Father, Barney Google and quite a few other features. That is why I got an invitation.

Spring vacation is always welcomed by parents of the children in the public schools who get tired of doing the children's lessons and writing their essays.

The old story is repeated. They blame the collapse of the Sapiro-Ford case on a woman. But the latter varies materially from the Garden of Eden incident, in which it was charged that woman tempted man to eat. In the famous libel suit a newspaper man tempted a woman to talk.

Paper money is being printed in Japan on printing presses, and we can expect after a time to have Japanese paper, whatever it may be called, in the same quantities that German marks were handed around a few years ago. We will all have an opportunity to get some Jap money and carry it around as souvenirs, or perhaps paper a room with it.

Governor Fisher has vetoed some salary-raising bills, and for this act we give him a loud "amen". Most of the political officeholders are getting all they earn and more. There may be some who earn more than they get, but we don't know any of them.

We are told that the last legislature changed the highway speed regulation and 35 miles is the limit for Pennsylvania highways. That is a good deal better than 30 miles. Cars are built to go fast and 30 miles is delaying traffic in many instances. Wouldn't hurt a bit if another five miles were added to the maximum speed. It would keep a great number of drivers from violating the law.

Governor Alfred E. Smith is to make known his views on prohibition in a paper as soon as someone asks him for it. We were under the impression that Al's views on prohibition and law enforcement were too well known to need any explaining. Looks as though someone is kidding Al into thinking he has a chance at the Democratic nomination next summer. Those candidates who are nominated a year ahead of the convention are seldom heard of when the delegates get busy.

A pretty nurse had for a patient a crabbed old rich man who kept her running in and out on trivial errands. He wanted the window opened and then he wanted it closed. The pretty nurse was kept busy.

"Never mind", said the house doctor, trying to be jocular. "He may ask you to marry him."

"Yes, he may", said the nurse. "He has about run out of other requests."

Our history tells us that Caesar, while yet a young man, had accumulated $1,360,000 in debts. We have just discovered why this was so. You will remember that Caesar built a lot of roads, but he had no automobiles to tax to pay for them.

This country treats the Mississippi problem as a poor man treats his farm, never spending enough to get it in good shape. Scores of millions have been spent on patchwork against flood danger. Now comes a flood causing five hundred million dollars' damage. That sum, properly spent, under one comprehensive plan, would have prevented this flood and future floods.

Normandy prepares to celebrate the 900th anniversary of William the Conqueror's birth, his invasion of England and all the rest of his glory. The celebration should include installation of a big statue on the Norman coast, of the tanner's daughter whom the conqueror's father saw washing clothes in a brook. That peasant girl, who became the mother of the conqueror, was honored by the conqueror's father who married her, and honored ferociously by her son William. After capturing a supposedly impregnable city whose foolish merchants had spread bullock hides on the outer walls to show derision for the tanner's grandson, William had the leading citizens skinned and their hides hung on the same walls. A warning to respect his mother. In our day, a dutiful son endows a hospital ward or an orphan asylum, a far better way to honor your mother.

Gladwyn Nichols, handsome, earnest band leader of Aimee McPherson's temple in Los Angeles, has quit, taking the band, choir and some of the congregation to a large tent. He promises high-grade religion.

Trouble began, it seems, when Mrs. McPherson had her hair bobbed. That bob was too "worldly" for the good Nichols. Mrs. McPherson, who says "It is just one of those things," explains that she had her hair cut to keep it from falling out, and will go right ahead saving souls at a rate to surprise you.

Oil underground is a great asset of this entire nation. The government should protect it, regulating prices when they tend to wastefulness. Our daily production of petroleum last week was 2,452,000 barrels, or 17,164,000 barrels for the week, nearly double the same week one year ago.

Moaning will come too late when the oil supply shall have been squandered because of its cheapness and Americans find themselves paying 60 and 75 cents a gallon for gasoline, as is done in many places abroad. Oil supply and gasoline interests all citizens. And what effects all citizens is the government's business.

Jerome J. Jerome says the stage is descending toward the bottomless pit to indecency. The "big theaters which must please the mob in order to pay expenses are the cause," says he. The size of theaters has nothing to do with it. American moving picture houses in which you could lose any British theater run decent pictures, because producers and exhibitors have brains enough to know that in the long run decency pays, and Will Hays, chosen by them as censor, does his work well.

Some are not satisfied with the "Star Spangled Banner" offered $1,500 for a better national tune. Nine hundred and fifty-one composers tried and failed. The "Star Spangled Banner" will continue to make Americans stand up. To do a thing well you must get excited about it. Socrates, greatest Greek teacher of oratory, said, "To convince others, be yourself convinced." There will be no improved "Star Spangled Banner" until real danger inspires somebody to produce the right song.

Patrick E. Crowley, who has set a new record for holding railroad directorates, has been president of the New York Central Railroad since 1924. Mr. Crowley began his career as a messenger boy at the age of fourteen. Today he is a director of more than one hundred prominent railroads doing business east of the Mississippi River. In railroad circles his success is ascribed largely to the fact that he is a master in the handling of traffic problems. Entering the service of the New York Central as a train dispatcher superintendent, assistant general superintendent, assistant general manager, general manager, vice president and finally president. This briefly, is the story of the messenger boy who became head of one of the two largest railroads in the country.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

THE JOLLY TESTATOR.

Wills are funny things. I saw one recently where the testator had very carefully typewritten a very good will, and signed it in his own handwriting at the end. It was not witnessed. There was no way by which the will could be used in the probate of the estate. It was only another example of the "Jolly Testator" attempting to do himself one of the most important acts of his life, and failing. There are wills drawn by the person who makes the will, nevertheless, that hold water. These are the joyous wills which entertain all who read them, with the exception of those to whom the death of the testator was a great bereavement. The contents of these wills usually indicate the bent of the man's mind drawing them. Here is one that has come to my attention:

"I direct that an elegant tombstone or monument be placed on my grave, to be made of granite, on which the lettering shall show plainly and distinctly, and of a lasting quality, and on the tombstone or monument shall be engraved an old bachelor standing on the brink of Jordan, preparing to cross the river, and on the other side of the river a group of old maids, each carrying in their hands a bunch of roses, and beckoning to him to cross, and on which tombstone or monument shall be engraved the following epitaph:

To an independent, good looking old bachelor, who in his younger days preferred living a single life rather than get married and have a petticoat boss ruling over him the rest of his life, and perhaps through an endless eternity."

"Thou turnest man, oh Lord, to dust,
From where he first was made,
and when Thou sayest the word return
'Tis instantly obeyed."

The poetry with which the will ended is suggestive of some of the epitaphs written by Bobby Burns.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

THE LEAF

The most important of all living things is the leaf.

Many leaves such as spinach, lettuce, etc., are eaten raw in salads or cooked directly.

Most of the foods, however, begin with a leaf and result in a fruit or vegetable. Apples, pears and other fruit, to say nothing of tomatoes and bananas, are all a modification of living forms in some way or other.

The tree is nothing but the developed leaf, as all tree trunks start with a leafy bud.

The leaf products eaten by man produce a certain amount of heat as nourishment. Burned in the fire they give out a definite amount of light and heat.

Dr. Gager, of the Brooklyn Botanic Garden, said in a recent address that Dean Swift's description of extracting sunbeams out of cucumbers for later use during raw seasons are not so absurd after all.

The most striking effect of the vegetation of the earth is its green leaves. Even when these do not appear green, as in copper-leaved beeches, the green coloring matter is there, but it is overwhelmed by the presence of another pigment.

Now this leaf-green depends upon sunlight and it might be called, without too greatly stretching the truth, capsuled sunlight. The leaf-blade also gets water and various salts from the soil, oxygen and dioxide gas from the air. This process can only take place in the presence of light, and is perhaps the most fundamental of all the processes of life.

So the food that we eat, whether vegetable or animal, the clothing we wear, cotton, woolen or silk, the frame dwellings in which some of us live and the wood, coal, gas and electricity that heat and light our buildings depend eventually upon green leaves.

Most of our butter and milk comes from animals that feed on leaves. All the wood and coal in the world was formerly inside of a green leaf and the heat and light of our houses is the sunlight of previous geological ages captured first by green leaves and stored up in our coal mines.

When Adam and Eve, according to tradition, made for themselves clothing of fig leaves it was an act typical of all future clothing as well as of all future nourishment of the race.

If you are going to be a heathen and worship strange gods we might recommend to you as an object of adoration the green leaf.

THE SAFEST COURSE—

In politics is to serve the people and be true to your own conscience.

In matrimony is to be willing to give more than you ask for.

In business is to keep the cost price a little below the selling price.

In religion is to be true to your own judgment.

In a lawsuit is to be sure you have the best evidence.

In any emergency is to tell the truth.

In life is to strive for the satisfactions which have powers of endurance.

Your vocal opinion of a man isn't worth a great deal while you're under obligation to him.

MORE THIRD DEGREE JUSTICE

Some weeks ago I wrote something about "Third Degree Justice", citing the unfortunate case of two shepherds in a little Spanish town who were convicted of murder and sent to prison for life. The man who was supposed to have been murdered turned up, after the victims were in prison for 12 years. The prisoners, when released, explained that they had confessed the murder when tortured by the police, though they knew nothing of the missing man.

A somewhat similar case was in the newspapers in the United States a few weeks ago. Condy Dabney was pardoned after serving more than a year of a life sentence in the Kentucky state prison. The girl he was convicted of murdering returned, alive and well. Another woman, jealous, had concocted an eye-witness story of the supposed murder and sent this innocent man to prison, after all the terrors of police examination and trial.

In the American case a skeleton was produced and "identified" as that of the missing girl. In the Spanish case no body was found, and the victims themselves made up a story about the dead man's body having been fed to the hogs.

I have a letter from Mr. Frank H. S. Thompson, welfare worker, Sacramento, California. I quote it in part:

Dear Mr. Driscoll:

A clipping from the Nevada State Journal of March 15 was handed me the other day, written by you on "Third Degree Justice". In the next to the last paragraph of the article it is stated "A case precisely similar could not happen in this country because here it is required that some part of the body of the murdered person be found and produced for a coroner's inquest."

In my work in Folsom prison I have found a man whose case is very similar to the Spanish one you mention. This man was convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment several years ago. No evidence was ever produced in court to prove that the supposedly murdered man was dead. He disappeared, but no part of his body was ever found. The methods used to convict him were not unsimilar to the Spanish case.

* * *

Was I, after all, too optimistic when I said that such a case could not be found in this country? In theory, certainly, no such injustice could be inflicted in this country, for the laws require the state to produce the corpus delecti, or body of the missing person, before anyone can be convicted of the murder. But it is unfortunately true that laws do not always protect the innocent from injustice.

As long as jealousy and fierce hatreds burn in the hearts of men, there will be injustice, in the courts as well as elsewhere. But the great body of American law safeguards the innocent about as well as those interests can be conserved in the existing state of civilization.

Musical Comedy Lovers Awaiting "Miss Mannequin"

Play To Be Staged Friday At Scottish Rite Cathedral

PITT CAP AND GOWN CLUB OCCUPY ROLES

College And High School Students To Attend Big Dance

"Miss Mannequin" will dance her way into the hearts of theatrical lovers, Friday night, at the Scottish Rite cathedral and following the performance there will be a Collegiate dance in the cathedral ballroom.

The play will start at 8:15 p. m. daylight saving time and will be produced by members of the Cap and Gown club of Pitt University and will be staged under the auspices of members of the local Pitt alumni.

College Students Coming

Indications point to thousands attending the play and dance as reports declare that alumni and students of Pitt, Westminster, Grove City, Geneva, Allegheny, Thiel colleges and the New Castle high school will be present.

"Miss Mannequin" has a touch of old Italy in its settings and is reported to be one of the best college musical comedies to be produced in years and for this reason, not only alumni but all theatrical-lovers are preparing to attend the production.

The play opens in an antique shop in old Italy with Rosylind, or "Miss Mannequin" being "discovered." She attempts to compromise a pseudo-performer and — action follows fast. Original music scores by Schnabel, blended with well-rounded terpsichorean numbers round out the performance.

Play Is Unique

While the production itself is to be enjoyed the expectation of following the choice tidbit of theatricalism with a Collegiate dance will make the Cathedral theatre and ballroom a mecca for the alumni and students from universities and colleges in Mercer, Lawrence, Butler and Beaver counties.

And further, the production, unlike others which have appeared in the city, "Miss Mannequin" will be something new offered to those who attend the performance as it will be presented entirely by a cast of men, exclusively all students of Pitt, the orchestra, also from Pitt having 20 pieces.

According to arrangements made today a special price of 50 cents has been made for students of New Castle high who wish to see "Miss Mannequin" dance her way into existence here. It is said that the high school will be well represented among the audience.

Noted Speaker At Jewish Function

Mrs. Milton Fuldheim Of Cleveland, To Speak At Hahassah Meeting, May 1

MRS. MILTON FULDHEIM.

At the executive board meeting of New Castle Chapter of Hadassah held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. L. F. Kohn plans were perfected for Hadassah participation in launching of U. P. A. campaign to take place next Sunday May 1.

On this occasion the Palestine film of four reels and the Hadassah film in one reel will be shown with I. Kadis, reginal director of U. P. A. as lecturer.

These pictures are very educational and the trip through Palestine via the cinema will be greatly enjoyed. The main feature of the elaborate program will be the address by Mrs. Milton Fuldheim of Cleveland, member of the retired speaker's bureau of Hadassah.

Mrs. Fuldheim is brilliant, impressive and scholarly and will have a message that goes straight to the heart. She is versatile and forceful and her magnetic personality immediately pins and holds her audience spellbound. She always receives a tremendous ovation where she speaks.

The Zion District, the Palestine foundation fund and Hadassah both Senior and Junior are working together with all elements of local Jewry to put on the campaign at this time.

Mark Razinovitz, chairman of the campaign will preside.

Coolidge Speech Stirs Unrest In Peking, Report

(International News Service)

LONDON, April 28.—President Coolidge's speech in New York on Monday regarding the American foreign policy and that towards China in particular has been received with "unconcealed disgust" in American circles in Peking, according to the Daily Telegraph correspondent. This dispatch states that the President's promises of protection for American lives and property are regarded as valueless since no redress has been insisted upon for the looting of the American consulate.

Reports received here have been plain in indicating that American circles in Peking are not entirely in sympathy with the Washington policy and would favor a stronger stand. There have been some intimations that American Minister MacMurray might find it convenient to offer his resignation if an opportunity to do so arises which will not cause embarrassment to the American Government.

Wife Of Senator Leaves Million And Half In Will

(International News Service)

ELKTON, Md., April 28.—A bequest of $300,000 in cash is made to Ex-Senator Joseph Orwin France by the will of his wife, the late Mrs. Evelyn S. France, filed for probate in the orphan's court here.

The estate of Mrs. France is said to be worth more than $1,500,000 and is one of the largest ever distributed in Maryland.

Besides receiving the $300,000 in cash the ex-senator is also willed the residue with an estimated value of $500,000.

PARIS, April 28.—Pola Negri has decided upon the style of her wedding gown but she hasn't decided upon the style of her wedding.

Pola has decided that her wedding gown shall be a "robe de style" in keeping with her Louis Sixteen Chateau, where the wedding will take place.

The film actress has taken up her residence at the chateau.

SUIT TO COLLECT BILL.

Two actions were filed in the office of Prothonotary Ralph M. Campbell today, both by the Moock Electric Company. The first is laid against W. R. Fullwood for $133.89 alleged to be due and the second is against David Nelson for $130.99 alleged to be due for goods sold the defendants.

INTERSCHOLASTIC CONFERENCES

Saturday, April 30, the ninth annual interscholastic academic conference of Pennsylvania will be held in the University of Pittsburgh. At this time students from the various high schools will compete for the honors. New Castle will have 17 students representing the school.

In the various departments of the school the students are being given tests to determine who will be sent. Those going will be attended by Miss N. F. McClaren, Miss Dorothy Edmunds and C. E. Baer, all of the school faculty.

During the conference in Pittsburgh tests will be given in the following subjects: American history, biology, chemistry, English, French (two contests), general information, general science, Latin (three contests), physics, mathematics (two contests), problems of democracy, Spanish.

TO ADDRESS SENIORS

Dr. Eisenberg of the Slippery Rock State Normal school was in the Senior high building today to talk to the Seniors who expect to be teachers following their graduation. His talk took up the second period and part of the third. A Senior class meeting was held the latter part of the third.

REPORTS

Marks for the fifth report period will be given out Friday, May 6. Most of the Seniors of the school are beginning to mourn the fact that only six more weeks remain before they leave their alma mater.

SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATIONS

Friday, May 6, state scholarship examinations will be given to 13 Seniors of the New Castle high school. The tests are sponsored by the Pennsylvania Department of Education and will be held in the high school library. The following will take the tests: William Beail, Harriett Biven, Virginia Duff, Esther Fishkin, Alice Grimes, Louise Lachner, Madalene Marlin, Harriet Martin, Helen McBride, Abe Newmark, Ransford Riddle, Edward Raney and Margaret Zimmerly.

CONDUCTS INTERESTING CLASSES

Mrs. Luella M. Fisher, assisted by Miss Grace Preston, both of the Pittsburgh Light and Heat Manufacturing Company, has been conducting very interesting classes in the school every period of the day during Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, at which time Mrs. Fisher explained thoroughly the best way to use gas in order to be economic. Her talks were accompanied by demonstrations of the modern gas system in the home. With her she had the following apparatus: street main pipe, curb line pipe, curb line shut-off, gas meter, gas radiant heater, old-fashioned water heater, automatic water heater, modern kitchen stove with thermo control.

LIBRARY DIRECTOR HERE

Miss Adeline Zachert, director of school library work in Pennsylvania, made a brief visit to the high school library Tuesday, April 26. Miss Zacherts' work is to advise and confer with administrative officials where school libraries are being organized. She stated that New Castle ranked with other cities when it came to school library work.

SPECIAL ORCHESTRA

A special orchestra, under the direction of Miss Isabel Zehner, made up of players from the Senior orchestra, played at the marriage of Rev. S. E. Irvine, in the First United Presbyterian church Wednesday evening. The following took part: Elizabeth Steen, Harold Sankey, Frank Byers, Michael Caruso, Eugene Wolfe, Domenick De Lillo, James Frank, Bruce Megehan, Eugene Wray, Philip Winter and Harry Stiertz.

Case Against Rowland May Be Closed Today

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 28. The Commonwealth is expected to close its case late today against Magistrate George E. Rowland, on trial before Judge J. G. Gordon in Quarter Sessions courts on graft and extortion charges. District Attorney Charles E. Fox alleges that $83,000 Rowland banked in 1926 could not have been obtained by the magistrate except through corrupt practices "under cover of his office."

Frequent rumors of perjury at the trial which opened Monday came to a head last night when Judge Gordon held Ignatz Merkil, a witness in $5,000 bail for the grand jury for alleged perjury.

Judge Gordon acted after Merkil denied he had told the District Attorney he had "settled" a liquor charge against a woman by taking $150 to Rowland's office to "fix" the case.

ANOTHER "DEATH TRAP" IS DOWNED

OIL CITY, Pa., April 28. — Of great interest to motorists in all this section is announcement that bids for overhead crossing planned above Rouseville, doing away with the Pennsylvania railroad "death trap" at that point, will be opened on April 28. Construction of the overhead crossing will mean erection of a highway bridge and will also mean completion of the unimproved section of the McKinney highway at that point.

Armed Guards To Prevent Looting

(International News Service)

GREENVILLE, Miss., April 28.—Armed with orders to "shoot to kill if necessary," National Guardsmen here are enforcing a strict curfew over the water-soaked city to end looting.

All persons on the streets after 8 o'clock at night are arrested unless they have a pass. These passes are issued by the National Guard.

One of the city's artesian wells was furnishing water for citizens who remained in this city.

All refugees who fled to Greenville for safety before the city's protective levee gave way, have been removed to safety at Vicksburg.

Show Products Of New England To Home Folks

State Publicity Bureaus Hold Many Exhibitions In Show Windows

Style Shows Featured By Textile Producers in Big Stores

(International News Service)

BOSTON, April 28.—The movement to show New Englanders the products of New England industries is developing rapidly. This movement is taking form in exhibitions, window displays, style shows, costume balls and many other different forms of advertising.

In Concord, N. H., the state publicity bureau is using a show window in the business section for the purpose of familiarizing the citizens of Concord, as well as visitors, with the products of the state. New Hampshire manufacturers are taking turns in using the window for display of their products.

Products of "the world's largest cotton mill" in Manchester, N. H., will soon be shown in the window of a department store there to residents of the city for the first time.

Style Show

A "traveling style show" organized by New England textile mills are shown on living models. This show was sponsored by the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers.

Another feature promoted by the textile industry is the cotton costume ball which will be held in Boston, May 13. All costumes worn at the ball will be of material produced in New England.

Running parallel with the textile industry is the display of products is the shoe industry. Exhibits have been shown at various theaters in Boston and now plans are under way for the seventh annual shoe and leather fair to be held in Boston during the month of July.

Advertising Exhibits

The advertising exhibitions have not been confined to the so-called "style products." Manufacturers of machinery are conducting exhibits. Probably the outstanding of these is the show of New England-made textile machinery which is exhibited yearly at Northbridge, Mass. To this show textile manufacturers from all sections of the country come.

The "Home Beautiful Exposition" held yearly in Boston is also another means of advertising New England products. At the recent show of 168 exhibitors, but twelve were from outside of this section.

Corn Borer Orders Well Carried Out

MERCER, Pa., April 28.—Meade Davidson of Worth township, who heads the federal inspectors in Mercer county, appointed to see to it that the regulatory measures imposed by the U. S. Agriculture Department for the eradication of the European corn borer are carried out, announce that the final date of May 1 will find Mercer county denuded of its cornstalks.

Mr. Davidson, who is in charge of six inspectors, each given authority to enforce the measures where it is necessary, states that farmers of the county are co-operating with him.

Some objections have been made, but quickly silenced, as the chief and inspectors have plenty of authority to enforce the measure for the eradication of this pest located in five states, where $10,000,000 is being spent.

The final date for all cornstalks to be burnt or plowed under, refuse of corn in the form of cobs or stalks to be burned, is that of May 1, when the planting of next year's crop will start.

Whether the effect desired or not is accomplished, it may be reported of this county that never before in its 127 years of existence has there been such a far-reaching movement.

TO BED BY MIDNIGHT OR JAIL, IS PORTLAND, ORE., COUNCIL EDICT

PORTLAND, Ore., April 28.—To bed by midnight or jail are the alternatives the city council has given the people of Portland. Curfew will ring then for grownups and youngsters alike.

Four holdups in nine days netted bandits $48,000, and nettled the city fathers, who decided something drastic ought to be done about it. Tonight, council passed the curfew ordinance. Now everyone, regardless of age or sex, found on the streets or in an automobile after the stroke of 12 must explain or go to jail for questioning.

To neglect good books is to refuse to enter into a most splendid human heritage.

American Doughboy May Get Chance To Show Some Fighting In China

By JOHN GOETTE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PEKING, April 28.—The American doughboy who so often has to stand idle while the marines step into the gap and have the fun of action as well as glory will soon get his chance in China. As soon as the Cantonese wave sweeps into North China the protection of American life and property will shift from the navy and marine corps to the shoulders of the "Fighting Fifteenth."

Since Boxer times a permanent American garrison has been maintained in Tientsin, the port of Peking for the purpose of keeping the path from the Chinese capital open to the sea. This detachment is now known as the American Forces in China and is commanded by Brigadier General Castner.

General Castner really represents the United States war department in China while actual command of the Fifteenth infantry rests on Colonel Isaac Newell. Two battalions of the Fifteenth are stationed at Tientsin the other one remaining in the Philippines.

In Peking however the protection duty falls in marines for the American Legation Guard is a command of 450 soldiers of the sea under Colonel Louis McCarty Little.

It is by means of the wireless plant operated by these marines that the American Legation is assured communication with the outside world in case of trouble. The marine station is in daily conversation with the naval station at Cavite and with the admiral of the U. S. Asiatic fleet as well as the American warships far in the Chinese interior.

Students To Give Plays At Bessemer

BESSEMER, Pa., April 28.—The students in the grades are working hard on several operettas that will be given in the near future. Operettas composed by teachers will be given by the two first and two second grades. The two third grades and four B will give "Little Boy Blue." The Kindergarden will appear in several clever dances. Four A and the two fifth grades will present "Cinderella" and "Flower Land." And last but not least 6B will entertain the audience with their renowned "Glee Club."

The members of the Girl Scout Club went out for a hike after school one night last week. They hiked a few miles up Hickory Creek picking wild flowers and having a general good time.

The History Club members marked Friday, April 22, in their book of Important dates. They had a party in the High School Auditorium. Mila Sankovich, a new member, showed some of the "stuff" she learned at New Castle. The dances were the featuring parts of the entertainment. Everyone had a fine time.

Our next meet is the Four County Meet which will be at New Wilmington, Saturday April 30. Bessemer is expected to show up well in this meet.

The Journalism Club displayed great originality in putting across their program last Thursday morning. The chief features were a two-reel movie, "From Texas Trail to Your Table," which took up the various steps in raising and shipping cattle end a short play entitled "Putting Out the Be-Hi." In reality it was an oral Be-Hi. The play contained much humor.

Bessemer has taken up arms for protecting young lives from Diphtheria. The first injection of anti-toxin was given in the grade building of the Bessemer public schools last Monday, April 25. One dose will be given weekly for three weeks. Injections were given free of charge to students and teachers by Doctors Campbell and Harper. The treatment is given by the Department of Health of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Harold Lloyd comes to Bessemer this Saturday with his best picture "Kid Brother." The movie will be shown in the High School Theatre.

Bessemer high school will be represented in the County Commercial contest this year. The contest will be held in the Senior high school auditorium at New Castle next Saturday, April 30. There will be two contestants for each of the three branches. They will be selected from students in the first and second year classes in typewriting, shorthand, and bookkeeping.

Bessemer high school's track squad swamped Struthers high school representatives last Monday by an overwhelming score of 55-33. The Sophomores made the majority of the victor's points. They made seven first places and many second and third places. Puromak, Mack and Persing starred for the winners.

Summary of Bessemers points:
100 yard dash—Puromaki, first place; Persing, second place.
440 dash—Mack, third place.
Mile—Bruckek, first place; Serjak, Second place.
880 dash—Serjak, second place.
Shot put—Mack, first place.
High jump—Mack, first place.
Pole vault—Puromaki, first. place; Young, third place.
Discus throw—Mack, First place; Serjak, third place.
Javelin throw—Puromaki, first place.

EDENBURG

EDENBURG TO HAVE BALL TEAM.

Edenburg is coming in strong for baseball this year, they expect to have one of the strongest teams in the county. Much excitement was caused Monday afternoon when a loud explosion was heard in the neighborhood, everybody run out doors looking toward the powder works, but later found that the old swamp down by the ball ground was being dynamited to drain the water off. Several baseballs were unearthed, which were lost by some of Edenburg's old time batters. A pie social will be held in the K. of P. hall Monday evening, May 2, by the ball team.

Once it was "a rag, a bone and a hank of hair". Now the rag is almost gone and the hair bobbed, but at times you see evidence of bone.

Many Cases Cleared In Mercer Courts

MERCER, Pa., April 28.—The past two days of the April criminal sessions have established a new trial record for the county. The number of cases set for each day have been disposed of by either trial or plea, but three continuances to later in the week occurring.

It is expected that the list will be completed this week. The bail forfeitures of Monday of $2500 were augmented by $1800 Tuesday in the $300 forfeited on Nick Angello of Youngstown, Ohio, held on driving a motor car while intoxicated and $1500 on John Moldovan on a liquor charge from Masury.

In the action in which R. S. Stewart and wife, Tillie, were defendants to a forcible detainer action the jury returned verdict of not guilty on both man and woman and divided costs between the man and Richard Grant, the prosecutor.

Walter Dale of Barkeyville, charged with driving while intoxicated was found not guilty and the costs placed on county. The action of aggravated assault and battery brought against Steve Lucas, of Sharon, was continued until the June term. The wife of Lucas being brought to Mercer to testify fainted on the way and had to be taken back to the hospital at Sharon where she had been a patient due to the alleged beatings given her by Lucas who is said to have so maltreated his wife and daughters that this action was brought.

Harry F. Hedglin, Martin Krystyk and Harry Fultz of No. 5 Mine plead guilty to larceny; John Sturdy of Sharon, plead guilty to violation of liquor law.

Perhaps the hardest fought case of the day was that against George Shamu, of Sharon, an agent for a life insurance company and stated to be well known, who is held on charge of driving while drunk.

The night of his arrest was January 18th, when the most slippery street condition of last winter prevailed. He was arrested by Constable Robert Maxwell on Rudd avenue. The case is being hard fought by Senator Ben Jarrett.

A law has just come into effect n South Africa, making it illegal o publish any report or comment oncerning pubic affairs while a political campaign is going on without the names of the writers.

The Maintenance Is Built Into Concrete Streets

When the street in front of your home or place of business is paved, you naturally want to be sure that the pavement chosen will be the most satisfactory and economical that money will buy.

Before you decide this important matter, investigate thoroughly the investment advantages of portland cement Concrete Pavement.

Be sure you know what a standard Concrete Pavement is. You can recognize it by the pleasing light gray color. It is made of a definitely proportioned mixture of sand and pebbles, or broken stone, held together by that tenacious binder, portland cement.

Our booklet R-4 tells many interesting things about Concrete Streets. Write this office for your copy.

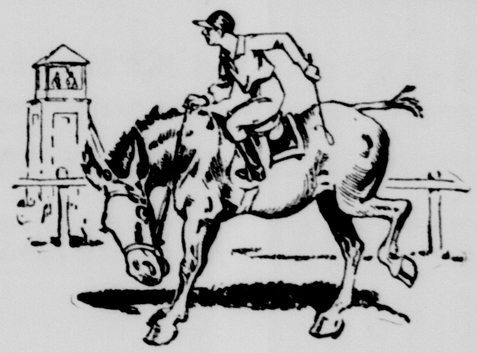
Would You Bet On a Mule?



A Little Advice On Picking a Winner

Let past performance—results—be your test. That's just common sense; moreover, that's the way to pick a winner.

And the same is true in everything. Take Puritan Malt, for example. What about this for a record?.... 4,750,000 cans sold in 1924, 6,000,000 in 1925, 12,000,000 in 1926—and sales still mounting! That's the answer to Puritan's superior Strength, Richness and Flavor. When you want the best bet you just naturally say—Puritan!

Indian Records Left On Rocks Are Visited By Local Historions

Most people of this city are aware of the fact that at some time previous to the settlement of New Castle by white men there were Indians roaming about the district. It has been pretty thoroughly established, according to J. Crawford White of Euclid avenue, member of one of the pioneer families of this district, that within the present limits of New Castle there was at one time located the Indian town of Kaskaska.

A number of years ago Mr. White while walking about the then property of his father, the late Joseph S. White, west of what is now Wilmington avenue and near the Shenango river, had the good fortune to discover what he is pleased to term the Kaskaskan library and which consists of Indian records in hieroglyphics traced on stones.

A short time ago Mr. White, accompanied by a small party of interested people, took a hike toward the Shenango river along Sheridan avenue extension, west of Wilmington avenue, for the purpose of determining whether there was any of the library extant at this time.

Mr. White and the others had just passed beyond the second bank or terrace, just east of the Shenango river, when they had the great pleasure of finding six volumes of the Kaskaskan records, originally discovered by Mr. White, still intact in a thicket.

These records in hieroglyphics are on six large stones. According to Mr. White, who has made a study of the subject, this is the largest Indian library that he knows of in the state of Pennsylvania, although he knows of two others, smaller in size, and located within the bounds of the state. They, however, do not compare with the one along the Shenango river and within the bounds of this city.

The hierolgyphics have become quite dim, as might be expected after more than a century and a half, and exposure during that time to the violent storms that have swept over this district. Although in this condition, some of the lines are still visible to the naked eye and it is possible, according to Mr. White, for it to be made an interesting study for the school children of the city, who might be interested in Indian lore.

At the time Mr. White made the original discovery of these records he tried to decipher some of the hieroglyphics, and on his recent rediscovery of the records verified his recollection of the carving representing the hat worn by the British Grenadiers in the days previous to the Revolutionary War, when this country was under the jurisdiction of Great Britain and France.

This shows, in the estimation of Mr. White, that the Kaskaskans had been in contact with the British and American colonist soldiers and that the Indian artist of the village of Kaskaska, in his effort to tell what was on his mind and leave it for the consideration of the future generations, had drawn it on one of the six rocks or volumes of the Kaskaskan library still extant in this city.

He is inclined to be convinced by this that this city was on the then trail that George Washington took on his journey to Erie to confer with the French. He is firmly convinced by this mute evidence that Washington took the trail up along the Shenango river and through this city.

The land on which these Indian records are located was in the White family for many years, until in comparatively recent times, owing to the expansion of the city, it was sold and is becoming built up.

It belonged not only to Joseph S. White, father of the discoverer of the Indian library, but to Crawford White, his father. This land has never had a plow turn a furrow in it, according to Mr. White, in spite of the fact that it is located in the first ward of the city of New Castle.

If the veterans go over in September, even the most hilarious should be out of the hoosgow by Christmas.

So a lot of new millionaires were made last year. If it isn't one thing that decreases the number of Democrats, it's another.

Japanese Operetta Scores Heavily Wednesday Night

Combined Grade School Orchestra Make Debut; Audience Well Pleased

Picturesque and of noteworthy success was the Japanese pageant written and staged by Miss Martha A. Kiester, instructor of Dramatic Art in Thaddeus Stevens school, and given by children of the same school in the Benjamin Franklin Junior high school last night. The production was delightful from the antics of the wicked little trolls at the opening curtain to the grand finale.

Splendid tone quality was manifested by the children in their choruses. In these the boys and girls had been very well trained by Miss Jane Oehler of the Music Department of Thaddeus Stevens school.

Miss M. Alice Forrest could certainly feel proud of her little folks in their dances, for these were executed with the skill of finished performers. Even the tiny fairies went through their figures with the grace and assurance of artists.

The costumes, on which much time and effort had been spent by Miss Kiester and her assistants, were beautiful and their beauty was further enhanced by the lighting effects used. This was particularly true of the Balloon Dance.

A special feature of the performance was the violin solo by James Davis. The little fellow made his first public appearance in a manner which predicts much for his future musical career.

Other noteworthy features were the piano solo, Nevins "Goodnight" from the Venetian Suite, played by Miss Jane Allen; the solo dances by the little butterfly, Alberta McCormick; the dainty little flowers, Leone Crane and Dorothy Fletcher, the fairy queen, Anna Mae Loyd and the Jinrickisha girls, Ruth Phillips and Dorothy Huber.

The combined grade orchestra of Thaddeus Stevens and Croton schools, directed by Miss Eva E. Coulter, of the Music Department in Croton school, appeared for the first time at this performance and was enthusiastically received. Their musical program consisted of the following selections:

"Love Me," Mackie-Beyer.

"Army and Navy Boys," Gustave Schumann.

"Let Me Call You Sweetheart," Friedman.

Pianists for the operetta were Miss Evea E. Coulter and Mrs. H. J. Phillips.

Children taking part in the Pageant were as follows:

Good little dancing goblins, Paul Coulthard, Robert Burchfield, Robert Musoman and Jack Jones.

Japanese children, Jean Kennedy, Bruce Douthett and Cleatis Bixler.

Story Teller, Leroy Mumford.

Fairy Queen, Anna Mae Loyd.

Jinrickisha Boys, John Komarc and Arthur Stanley.

Jinrickisha Girls, Ruth Phillips and Dorothy Huber.

Westminster's Varsity Debaters End Season

End Debating Year With Three Victories And Three Defeats

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 28.—Westminster's varsity debate squad has put aside cares and worries for another season. During the campaign which recently closed, three debates were won and as many lost. Despite the fact that the result was no better than an even break, members of the squad and coaches alike, are pleased with the season as a number of new men were used consistently, which means that there will be veteran material available next year.

The team was coached by Dr. C. A. Dawson, Dr. E. B. Russell and Professor C. W. McKee. "Resolved, that the United States should cancel the war debts owed to it by the allied nations", was the subject debated throughout.

To start the season, the varsity squad was divided into a negative and an affirmative team and the personnel of each was maintained during the year. The negative team was decidedly successful, winning against Geneva, Bethany and Waynesburg. The affirmative team lost debates to Grove City, Bethany and Waynesburg.

In the split-team debates with Washington and Jefferson and Western Reserve University, the Westminster affirmative debater aided greatly in swinging the popular decision to the affirmative.

The negative team was composed of Robert Ferguson of Bellevue, Samuel Colman of Philadelphia, Wilson Botsford of Pittsburgh and James Chambers of New Castle. Brown Bricker of Braddock, Howard Hamer of Erie, Thomas Mansell of New Wilmington, and Clyde Myers of New Castle, represented the affirmative.

Brown Bricker, Robert Ferguson and Samuel Colman represented Westminster in the split-team debates.

No More Piles

Thousands Bless Dr. Leonhardt, the Physician Who Discovered This Common Sense Remedy

If you think that the surgeon's knife is the only method of escape from the misery of piles, it's because you haven't heard of the new treatment known as Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID.

This Doctor's treatment is internal. By experimenting, he discovered the cause of piles and then went further and compounded a remedy that would remove the cause.

Every pile sufferer should benefit by his discovery and so that there will be no doubting or delay, McKee's Kut Rate Store and Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. and all druggists are authorized to sell HEM-ROID with guarantee that it will do as stated or money back.

On that honorable basis every sufferer should secure a package of Dr. Leonhardt's HEM-ROID today.

Bed Wetting! Stop It Now

When you have to get up two or three times during the night it's often a sign of bladder trouble.

You may or may not have symptoms such as a steady dull aching back and darting pains in the groin. At any rate, Marshroot is guaranteed to help you in a very short time or money back.

You'll feel better after taking one bottle—more energy—and whole nights of sound sleep. It isn't expensive. Eckerd's sells lots of it.

Chicago Officers To War On Crooks; Leave Flask Exempt

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 28.—Chicagoans today were jubilant over what was regarded as the commencement of a tolerant police attitude toward hip flasks and friendly bottle beer in the larder, in keeping with the campaign promises of Mayor William Hale Thompson.

Lifting of the lid was begun according to politicians with the address of Chief of Police Hughes to his 50 captains in which he intimated that "frisking pantries for pints" was of less importance than running crooks out of the city.

"You are not to condone any notorious or flagrant gambling, vice or bootlegging of course" said Hughes, "but these things should be secondary. If a man wants to have a good time, that's his business as long as he doesn't violate the law or interfere with the rights of others.

"The policeman's job is to catch thieves and thugs and that is what I want you to concentrate on in managing your districts."

New Architectural Books In Library

Works Of Lewis Mumford Received On New Book List

"The severe athletic lines of the Brooklyn bridge are many times finer than the birthday-cake 'Gothic' of the Woolworth tower" according to Lewis Mumford, author of a reading course on Architecture recently added to the public library. "One shows a plain honest face, the other a weak mask." "Beauty" he says "is not something that can be arrived at directly; it is rather what follows when the architect's skill and taste and understanding are devoted to fulfilling the immediate purpose of a building."

Mr. Mumford is the author of Sticks and Stones and associate editor of the Dial. His reading course on Architecture is the seventeenth in the "Reading with a purpose" series published by the American Library Association. Louis Sullivan's The Autobiography of an Idea is one of the half dozen books the course recommends to help the reader get "A sense of architecture as a living contemporary thing."

The librarian of the public library says, "Mr. Mumford did not arrive at his understanding of architecture through formal study. His appreciation of its human significance came in another way. He has simply rambled through the cities of America and Europe, looked at the buildings, and talked over their construction with the people who were building them. This human approach is equally evident in his own introduction and in the books he recommends."

Church League Opens Season Monday, May 9

Walter Kirker Gives First Weeks Schedule; Umpires Selected

Walter Kirker, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., has completed the first week's schedule for the Y. Church Baseball League, to be opened Monday, May 9. According to Kirker, all games will be played on either the Colonial field, located on the North Hill, or the Lehigh field, on the east side of town, on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, beginning at 6:15.

Alex Black, Dan Potter and Bob Hamilton will handle all games played.

The schedule for the first week is as follows:

Monday, May 9: Lehigh field, Third U. P. vs. First Baptist.

Reserves Have Vocational Meeting

Wednesday after school the Senior Reserves had a vocational meeting in the Y. W. C. A. That is, a number of speakers told of their work in the vocation they are following. Fifty-five girls were present. Speakers were as follows:

Mrs. Frederick Roberts told of business of conducting foreign tours and of qualifications.

Mrs. Heston of the Jeannette Tea Room told of her business.

Dr. Mildred Rogers spoke of the long years of training to be a physician, but it is worth it.

Mrs. Bertie Franc of the Green Shelves told of the business of running a gift shop.

Barton E. Richards gave the last of the series of brief talks. His theme was "Hard Work".

The meeting proved of great interest to all attending. The election of officers took place, but this election may take place again on account of so many members of the organization not being able to be present.

Norwegians To Meet In Duluth June 23

(International News Service)

DULUTH, Minn., April 28.—Delegates from seven northwestern states will attend the annual convention of the Nordlandslaget of America here June 23, 24 and 25.

An attendance of at least 500 delegates from Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan, Illinois, North and South Dakotas and Minnesota is expected.

The membership of the Nordlandslaget comprises many of the leading Norwegians of the United States but most of the delegates will be from small cities and rural districts in the northwest according to H. H. Borgen, Duluth, president.

Last year's convention of the Nordlandslaget was held in the Twin Cities in connection with the Norse-American centennial. Several thousand persons attended the 1926 meeting including foreign notables.

Annual Clean-Up Week, Next Week

GROVE CITY, Pa., April 28.—The annual clean-up week will be observed here in Grove City next week, beginning May 2. The plans for the week are under the supervision of the civic affairs committee of the Commercial Club, with the co-operation of the other civic organizations, the Boy Scouts, merchants and the local brotherhood of painters, decorators and paperhangers. No definite schedule has been arranged by the committee, but each citizen is urged to make this week an occasion for a general cleaning up of his premises, gathering the trash and rubbish into piles placed near the curb. A fleet of trucks, manned by the Boy Scouts, will remove these rubbish piles on Friday.

The new Gladstone Dock at Liverpool has cost between $35,000,000 and $40,000,000, and is the largest in the world. Elaborate ceremonies will accompany its formal opening next July.

Dinner Held For Y. M. C. A. Cabinet

Dr. Wallace, President Of Westminster College, Speaks At Dinner Tuesday

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 28.—Westminster's Y. M. C. A. cabinet enjoyed a sumptuous dinner in the Neshannock hotel, here Tuesday evening. The dinner was an innovation and proved to be most successful, 19 members of the cabinet attending.

Dr. W. Charles Wallace, president of the college, spoke on "the place of the cabinet on the campus". Dr. R. J. Love, faculty advisor of the organization and himself a graduate of the college, spoke of the early history of the Christian society.

Joseph Dickson of Pittsburgh, retiring president of the association, and Donald McClure of Blairsville, the incoming prexy, each gave short talks. Dickson reviewed the work of the past year and spoke concerning the prospects for the future. McClure then outlined the plans of the cabinet for the coming year.

Orvil Mirtz of Pittsburgh, presided at the Wednesday evening meeting of the Y. M. "Looking Forward" was the subject. After a short introductory speech, an open forum discussion was in style and some interesting suggestions for the future betterment of the organization were forthcoming.

Nothing is Just as Good as the "Red Star"

Many competitive salesmen pay us compliments when they say that their Oil Stove is as good as the "Red Star." They recognize the leadership of the "Red Star" and can only hope that their's is "nearly as good." Remember the "Red Star" gives you the best results known to oil stoves—it has no wicks, no rings, no odor, no fumes and as the oil is NOT UNDER PRESSURE there is no danger.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATION

A way to Better Living

REFRIGERATION is a modern necessity. Food must be properly protected for the sake of health, to retain the original flavors and values, to prevent the waste of spoilage.

Electric Refrigeration assures the constant, unvarying cold and the absence of moisture that are essential to the proper protection of foods.

In the Electric Refrigerator milk and cream remain sweet for days, vegetables and greens are kept crisp and fresh, meats are perfectly protected. With the Electric Refrigerator spoilage is practically eliminated.

Protects Baby's Milk-- Prepares Dainty Desserts

Only Electric Refrigeration can give you absolute assurance that your child's milk has been adequately guarded against deterioration. The health of that vigorous little body depends so largely on the milk he drinks. You buy the best, of course, and it is just as important that you protect it with equal care.

Then there are so many economies and conveniences made possible by the Electric Refrigerator.

Dainty frozen and chilled desserts and delicacies that please the whole family—made without effort and ready to serve when wanted.

Vegetable and meat supplies for the whole week purchased at one time and perfectly protected till needed for cooking.

Perfect refregeration at all times, even though you go away over the week-end or for a longer period.

Get Ready for Warm Days — Buy Your Refrigerator Now

New Castle dealers are prepared to give you prompt efficient service. You'll be surprised at the convenient terms they offer and delighted with the use of your Electric Refrigerator.

The New "Sealtite" Model

The Oldest Electric Refrigeration for the Home

Kelvinator is the pioneer successful system of electric refrigeration for the home. It was a fully proven success before any other existing system was even on the market.

The Kelvinator installations made from five to ten years ago are still operating as efficiently as ever. These early installations demonstrate that Kelvinator has been a fully perfected product for years, and can be purchased with complete confidence.

Cabinet Kelvinators are complete refrigerating units composed of Kelvinator and a high grade Leonard Refrigerator. They are especially suitable for small homes, apartments and for rented homes. One simple electrical connection is all that is required. Eight models from which to choose.

Experiments Are Past— The General Electric Refrigerator is Here

There is now available a simple, practical, trouble-proof icing unit that takes automatic refrigeration defintely out of the experimental stage.

Only an institution like General Electric with its world-wide resources could have developed so outstanding an achievement.

Electric refrigeration—above all things an electrical problem—has been solved electrically by the world's outstanding group of technical experts—General Electric engineers.

Relief For Flood Area Supported By Commercial Club

GROVE CITY, Pa., April 28.—Grove City Commercial Club members, at their regular monthly meeting Monday evening, expressed themselves as willing to support the Mercer County Red Cross organization in its relief program for flood sufferers in the flood area of the Middle West. This action was taken after a letter was read by the secretary from the United States Chamber of Commerce headquarters, calling on all clubs and Chamber of Commerce organizations to assist in the call for a five-million-dollar fund for this relief. Representatives of the club will act in conjunction with the county Red Cross officials in furthering the work.

E. B. Harshaw of the Grove City National Bank gave a short talk concerning the corn borer proposition in this vicinity. Mr. Harshaw, who is chairman of the agriculture committee, made it plain that all corn stubble and stalks must be disposed of before May 1.

The proposed new addition to the water plant of Grove City was discussed, and all members of the club were urged to be present at the citizens' meeting in the high school auditorium Thursday evening. At this time Hudson & Myron, consulting engineers, will submit their report, and the people of Grove City will be given an opportunity of asking questions.

Track Men Unable To Hold Practice

Westminster's Track Supporters Serious With Carnegie Tech On Schedule May 13

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 28.—Due to the over-abundance of the fluid said to be under the jurisprudence of Jup Pluvis, Westminster's track team has been able to accomplish little this week in prepping for its first meet of the season May 13 with Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh.

The college track during the spells has been under the hand of college workmen grooming it for the four county interscholastic track meet Saturday. The varsity runners have been unable to make use of it while the dash lanes have not been in shape. The same can be said for the jumping pits.

However the majority of men have limbered up each afternoon. Coach J. W. Colman is worried concerning the prospects for the first meet he had hoped to stage an inter-class meet last Saturday but a snow storm put an end to that. This meet in which letter-men will be eligible to participate may be run off next week.

Quail And Rabbits Released In Winter

MERCER, Pa., April 28.—During the winter that is past 500 rabbits and 50 pair f Hungarian quail were released in Mercer county. The quail were released to the south of Mercer near the Lawrence county line where in 1926 double that number of birds were released.

The plan is to replenish the native quail with these birds who are larger and will provide more game as they are stated to raise more young.

Any number of ring-neck pheasant hens are stated to have survived the winter. The closed season on them for some years and open season on the cocks has made the number of female birds highly in the majority.

Old time sportsmen are of the opinion that a limit season on the hens might be profitable if for no other reason than to reduce their number.

Instances have been reported of these birds where they became as tame as barnyard fowls.

THIS SCOURGE WAS DRAGGING HIM DOWN

ALL-BRAN gave him new lease on life when it checked constipation

No matter how chronic constipation has become—no one need give up hope of relief. Read Mr. Williams' cheery message:

"I am on the down-grade in life. Never had any sickness, but of late years have been troubled with constipation. Began to make up my mind that I was about done up. Have taken tablets, eaten fruits, etc., but did not get much help. Began to use your ALL-BRAN twice a day. Have gained 8 pounds. Feel like a fighting cock. Bowels are regular. You have certainly done a lot for humanity."

L. C. WILLIAMS

ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. Doctors recommend Kellogg's because it is 100% bran—100% effective.

Delicious with milk or cream—and add fruits or honey. Ready to eat. Fine in cooking. Sold and served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Recipes on package.

Hard Rain Prevents Burning Corn Stalks

Best Method Of Guarding Against Corn Borer Delayed By Much Rain

To insure a complete clean-up of all corn refuse in Lawrence county before May 1, County Agent H. R. McCulloch again calls attention to the need of cleaning up all 1926 sweet corn patches in town and city gardens.

Present indications point to a very satisfactory clean-up in most Lawrence county corn fields. A few on low land have been so wet that the owners could not plow them and in others, stalks cut and raked together for burning have been soaked by the rain so that they could not be fired. A few days should find the scattering gardens and fields cleaned up and the corn trash around buildings, barnyards and feed lots burned.

LARGEST PICTURE REACHES NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 28.—A painting 400 feet long and 50 feet high believed to be the largest picture in the world arrived here Wednesday from France on the liner Paris.

The painting entitled "Pantheon De La Guerre" which will be exhibited here and in other cities contains the figures of more than 600 allied soldiers and more than 20 French artists worked on it. It was necessary to cut it in half before it could be shipped.

DO YOU KNOW?

That it has always been a Ford policy to provide transportation at lowest cost; and while desirable features, such as starter and balloon tires, are now standard equipment. Special equipment which is often wanted by some purchasers, but which would have to be paid by all if adopted as standard is not included in Ford prices.

Any of this equipment can, however, be purchased at extremely low cost by the owner who seeks to individualize his car.

WORTH WHILE VALUE ASSURED.

Our sale certainly created a sensation in Mahoningtown and the huge volume of business consumed the first few days proves that real values are always appreciated Everybody is talking about the values they secured and the desirable merchandise offered now at such extremely low prices will cause still more comments.

The last two days offer the climax of value giving ending in a grand climax Saturday night.

Values will be very much worth while during these last days. Beginning at 9 o'clock we will open with a mystery box sale. Chicago Stork Is Loafing On Job

CHICAGO, April 28.—The stork delivering twins here, may have become confused by the change to daylight saving time. At any rate Mrs. Anna Kovel gave birth to a son at La Grange a suburb, one day while his twin brother was born the next in Austin another suburb. The boys met today at a hospital where they are holding a family reunion with their mother.

Elderly Welsh Woman Dies At Swansea Home

Known To Many Residents Of This City Who Came From Wales

Mrs. William Francis of Edgewood avenue, has just received the sad news telling of the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, better known as "Granny" Williams, at her home in Swansea, Wales, on April 12. The funeral was held on April 15, and was the largest that had been held in that community in many years.

Mrs. Williams had reached the advanced age of 85 years at the time of her death. Her husband preceded her in death by thirty-six years.

She had become widely known throughout Swansea and South Wales by reason of her efforts to make others happy, especially those who were in need. Her sterling character and outstanding philanthropies had spread her reputation beyond the confines of her immediate community.

She was a member of the Pentre Congregational church and was one of its most active members, even up until a short time before her death. She was interested in every phase of the work of the church.

Mrs. Williams is survived by six children, Mrs. Thomas Williams, Joseph, Elias and John Williams of Swansea, Wales, Mrs. William Francis of this city and Reese Williams of New York City.

The news of her death caused widespread regret here, owing to the large number of people residing here, who came from the section of Wales in which she had resided for so long a time.

Mid-Year Meeting Of Young People In Wesley Church

Mid-year Young Peoples Conference of the New Castle district will be held in the Wesley M. E. church, West Washington street, Sunday, May 1, afternoon and evening.

The afternoon session will open at 2:30 sharp, Daylight Savings time.

About 250 delegates are expected to attend, representing 40 Bible schools. T. J. Davies, superintendent of the district and his committee has arranged an interesting program. Miss Barbara Bratschie, New Castle High School student will make the address of the afternoon.

Separate sessions for boys and girls at which time short talks on phases of religious work will be given will also be a pleasing feature of the program.

Selections by the orchestra and violin and vocal numbers will add much to the interest of the meeting.

Erie Resident Is Fined In Court For Smuggling

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 28.—Padro Silvestri, of Erie, Pa., today was under sentence to pay $250 fine levied against him by Federal Judge W. H. S. Thomson here after Silvestri pleaded guilty to assisting two Italians to illegally enter the United States from Windsor, Canada.

The Italians, Luigi Santoionni and Martone Marcontioni, were deported by immigration authorities.

BUTLER, Pa., April 28.—While 14-year-old John Fedder was recovering in the Butler County Memorial hospital from an operation for the amputation of his leg his parents moved out of town and left him homeless police reported today. Efforts thus far to locate the boys' parents have proved fruitless. He will be taken care of in the Butler county home.

Makes Upholstery Look Like New

HERE'S the easy, sure way to clean dull upholstery. Just apply a sponge or soft brush dipped in H and H solution. Then wipe it off. See how quickly it brightens the dingiest fabric—brings out the dirt and grease and restores the original colors.

H and H is ideal for cleaning rugs, carpets, woolens, drapes, pictures, walls and clothes. Takes out spots as easily as gasoline—leaves no telltale ring—no odor. Perfectly safe, too—harmless as pure water.

Get H and H from you grocer, druggist or department store. If they don't have it, send 20c and we will mail you full sized package, postpaid.

Children Taking An Interest In Birds

Many Enroll In Bird Contest Being Given In Library

The bird contest being conducted by the New Castle Public Library children's department started Tuesday, April 26, and will run to May 7. Over 100 school children of the fifth and sixth grades in the public schools joined at this time.

Each boy or girl who enrolled Tuesday received a set of rules explaining just what was expected of those taking part. The plan was that four birds' pictures be posted in the children's department on the 26th, and that every boy or girl should write the name of each one on the chart handed him. The numbers of the birds are given. This plan was to be followed every Tuesday and Thursday until 24 pictures have been shown.

Great interest was noted Tuesday, as everyone who attended was interested in the work and desired to show his or her knowledge of birds.

When the contest is over those having the names of the birds correct will receive a prize. It is not yet decided what this will be.

ROMANCE DIES AT OBERLIN COLLEGE

OBERLIN, O., April 28.—Romance is dead at Oberlin college. So, at least, think Oberlin students.

For nearly 100 years, Oberlin, the first college in the United States to admit men and women on an equal basis has had as one of its traditions romantic midnight serenades by the college men below the windows of the co-eds.

But now the college authorities have placed a ban on the midnight serenades.

Roller Skated In Path Of Automobile

FRANKLIN, April 28.—Nine-year-old Aileen Exley roller skated into the path of an automobile driven by Arthur Hoover, motoring on Pacific street, just before dusk last (Tuesday) night, and suffered a fracture of the collarbone. The child was dragged about 40 or 50 feet before the machine could be stopped.

The driver hurriedly picked up the tot and took Aileen and her father W. L. Exley, who resides at 207 Pacific street, to the hospital.

Necessity Of Creeds Told By Macartney In Speech To Elders

Local Presbyterians will be interested in an address made by Rev. Dr. Clarence E. Macartney, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, before the Ruling Elders Association of Presbytery, in which he told of the necessity for creeds. He said in part:

"As long as men believe they will give expression to that belief. The Presbyterian church requires all of its ministers and ruling elders intelligent and loyal subscription to its confession of faith.

"In so doing it recognizes that God alone is the Lord of conscience, and nothing is more abhorent to Presbyterians than that one mind should seek to impose its views upon another mind. But the church also recognizes the sacred right of association. That is the right of men to hold certain views of Christ and the Scriptures, and join together in societies or churches; and especially what shall be held and taught by their elders and ministers.

"The Presbyterian church is ready to receive into its communion all those whom it thinks Christ will receive at the last day. But upon its ministers and ruling elders it lays certain definite and solemn obligations.

"The purpose of a creed is therefore threefold: first, to propagate and defend the truth; second, to be a means of mutual encouragement and fellowship; third, to make a united and corporate witness to truth as it is in Christ."

Steubenville Sticks To Slow Time Until August, Then Votes

STEUBENVILLE, O., April 28.—City council last night repealed the daylight saving ordinance which became a law last year and the city will operate on Eastern Standard time.

Agitation for the repeal started three months ago and developed a controversy which raged for weeks. Council held to the opinion that the majority of the citizens were opposed to the advance time and in repealing the ordinance provided for a referendum vote on the proposition at the August primaries.

Auto Full Of "Nitro" In Wild Flight

KANE, April 28.—McKean county in its development of the crude oil industry has witnessed some remarkable instances of the freakishness of nitroglycerin but never one more unusual than occurred at Coryville, near here, when a motor truck containing 150 quarts of the high explosive ran away and crashed into a telephone pole without an explosion.

The well shooter for a torpedo company had entered a Coryville store to make a purchase, parking the truck in front of the place. The brakes failed to hold the truck and it started down the grade at that point towards a crossroad, gaining speed with every yard. Its progress was watched with fear by a dazen people who knew there was enough nitroglycerin in the truck to wipe Coryville off the earth. The truck narrowly missed two concrete headwalls before it plunged into the pole and came to a stop and the onlookers gasped with relief when no explosion followed. The truck was only slightly damaged.

Coolidge Will Go To Wisconsin, Michigan Or Minnesota For Vacation

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—President Coolidge's choice of a summer White House has narrowed down to three states, Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota it was learned here today. For governmental and other reasons it is now unlikely that Mr. Coolidge will go further away from Washington.

The President was understood today to be favorable to Wisconsin and more particularly to the Lake Geneva section where a palatial estate owned by William Wrigley has been offered him. The place is within three hours motoring distance of Chicago and abounds with good fishing. No final decision has yet been made.

Polar Bear Act Thrills At Robinson's Circus

What is said by critics to be the greatest of all polar bear acts, will be offered by John Robinson's circus when this famous show comes here for afternoon and night exhibitions on Wednesday May 11. Theodore Schroeder, noted subjagator of wild animals will present this group of Siberian polars said to be the last word in porforming animals.

A smashing climax is provided when Schroeder engages in a hand-to-hand sombat with four giant polars. To protect himself from serious injury he is forced to wear a steel helmet on his head, an iron collar around his neck and a heavy suit of double-leather. Despite these precautions he frequently is injured. No other circus offers as many thrilling wild animal acts as John Robinson.

Seats Going Fast For Student Prince

Seat sales for The Student Prince, the Shubert operetta to be presented at the Scottish Rite Cathedral on the evening of May 3, 1927, are growing to such an extent that the committee in charge have reason to believe that the entire city has taken a personal interest in the matter and that every available seat will be filled when the show is presented.

Scenic effects of the production are on such a gigantic scale that a force of 26 stage hands is required to make the changes during the presentation of the beautiful play centering about the love of Prince Karl, the man of royal blood and Kathie the little maiden of Old Heidelberg who is only lacking in the one essential that of royal birth.

There are 23 beautiful melodies presented during the performanse and the Shuberts have provided 26 talented principals, 30 female choristers and a male chorus of 60 trained voices to present them in the best possible manner.

It will be the biggest and best theatrical production of the year in this city and those who miss it will regret it as there has never been a big city production of its calibre presented here on so elaborate a scale.

The cast includes Eliz Gergely, Lucius Metz, Vernon Jacobson, Sylvia de Franke, Leo Starke, Fred Goodrow, Cornelia Ellis and others of outstanding ability in the world of music.

Air Mail Flier Forced To Land At Beaver Falls

Pittsburgh To Cleveland Air Mail Flier Lands At Beaver Falls

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 28.—The first mishap to an airplane on the newly establishedd Pittsburgh-to-Cleveland air mail line failed to daunt Kenneth Lovejoy, pilot, it was learned today.

When a broken water line in the motor of his plane, the Miss McKeesport forced him to land in a field near Beaver Falls, Pa., the airman unloaded his mail from the disabled machine, boarded a train and delivered the mail at Cleveland its destination.

Meantime maintenance men at Bettis field, McKeesport were notified and the plane was to be repaired and ready for the regular Pittsburgh-to-Cleveland trip today.

The plane was not damaged when Lovejoy was forced to land he reported and he was unhurt.

Red Hot Cinders Roast Victim Under Furnace

WILMINGTON, Del., April 28.—Caught in an ash conveyor passing under a blast furnace dropping hot cinders, John Newell, 47, was dead here Thursday from burns.

The accident occurred at the Delaware Pulp mills. The conveyor in the form of an endless belt, carried Newell under the furnace three times before he was rescued. He died in a hospital.

Coke Production Shows Decrease

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 28.—Coke production in the Connellsville region continues its downward trend, the International News Service weekly survey today revealed. Figures for the week ending April 23 show the total production to have been 129,260 tons, a decline of 11,020 tons from the preceding week.

The reduction was indicated by the fact that 676 ovens were blown out. This figure included 280 at the Leisenring No. 1 plant of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, which were only recently fired after being idle for two years. They had been banked for a week before being placed on the idle list.

The market was reported still duller. Spot furnace coke is said to have been offered at $3.15 a ton in quantity lots. The ruling price is $3.25.

State Ready To Close Snyder-Gray Testimony

State Prosecutor Will Call About 12 More Witnesses

Defense Expected To Take Four Days In Presenting Case

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

COURTHOUSE, LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., April 28.—The state probably will close its case today—certainly tomorrow at the latest, District Attorney Richard E. Newcombe, who is prosecuting Ruth Brown Snyder and her former lover, Henry Judd Gray, for murder of the woman's husband, Albert Snyder, said this morning before court opened. He indicated he would put no more than half a dozen additional witnesses on the stand.

The dual defense of Gray and Mrs. Snyder is expected to last a week, and summations about two days, so the jury probably will get the case at the end of next week.

Whether Mrs. Snyder or Gray will take the stand has not been definitely revealed by attorneys for either side. They have indicated that the defendants would take the stand in their own defense, and again that they would not. During the questioning of talesmen attorneys for "the defendant Snyder" asked prospective jurors if they would be prejudiced in the event Snyder did not take the stand.

Since that time, however, it is conceded that the state has brought forward powerful evidence against both defendants, particularly the confessions of Mrs. Snyder and Gray of participation in the slaying of Snyder. The strength of the state's case is said to have caused the defending attorneys to change their mind and to plan to call upon both defendants to testify.

Interest in the trial has reached a high point and the crowds that storm the courthouse are growing larger daily. The "no standing room" order of Justice Townsend Scudder, presiding, is being ignored and at every session standers are parked all around the side and rear walls.

The cold, unemotional exterior of the blonde Ruth Snyder has aroused antipathy among the courtroom fans, especially the women who openly express their condemnation of her. On the other hand some sympathy is expressed for the dejected Gray who sits slumped in his chair like a stone image seemingly unable to believe the predicament he is in.

Back of both defendants sit some of their relatives—Gray's mother and his sister, and Mrs. Snyder's mother and brother. Conspicuously absent is Gray's wife who at first refused to believe her husband had become involved with another woman, especially in a murder.

Victoria Chorus Dances For Queen

LONDON, April 28.—The "Victoria Girls" England's best teamwork chorus, staged two first night events at the same time here recently.

One event was their appearance before the King and Queen in a command performance for the first time. The other event was their appearance for the first time since they were organized in tights. It is understood that the censors who reviewed the program at the girls appearing without tights, so the chorus "to please the Queen's tastes" put them on rather shamefacedly, but took them off after the performance "until the next royal command."

Many Kiddies Cured At Crippled Clinic

Two Operations Performed Yesterday By Dr. Wallace Of Pittsburgh

ELLWOOD CITY, Apr. 28.—About seven crippled kiddies were taken care of at the local hospital under the auspices of the Rotary club Crippled Children's Clinic yesterday. Some plaster paris casts were removed and to the joy of three of the kiddies, they were cured and pronounced fit by the doctors in charge. Some little unfortunates were not so lucky and had to have the casts replaced.

Joe Schuler and his motion picture camera were present and an effort was made to take some motion pictures of the process for publicity purposes in the Community Chest drive. The day was rather cloudy, but sanguine hopes are being entertained for the success of the "shots."

Dr. Wallace the Orthopedic surgeon from Pittsburgh operated on two little cripples successfully.

Many Pay Respects To Squire Mecklem

ELLWOOD CITY, April 28.—Many friends and relatives paid their last respects to the memory of Squire Mecklem at the home of his granddaughter yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Charles Bell, Rev. W. S. Smith and Rev. John King.

A wealth of beautiful floral tributes gave mute testimony as to the standing of the deceased in the hearts of his friends and as a figure in the community.

Acting pall-bearers were the following grandsons, Lester, Shirley and Irvin Dolter, Carl Gallagher, Wayne Gallagher and William Moore. A contralto solo was rendered by Mrs. W. R. Thompson.

Interment was made in the North Sewickley cemetery. The following out of town relatives paid their respects:—Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Mecklem, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Mecklem, of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mecklem of Washington, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. William Mecklem of New Brighton; Mr. and Mrs. William Shaner of New Brighton; Mrs. Jennie Bennett of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Crawford of Coraopolis.

Patriotic Wrinkle Is Ironed Out

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., April 28.—An argument over the advisability of placing an American flag in one of the local theatres arose Saturday night when a group of delegates from several patriotic organizations visited the local theatres with a view of ascertaining if each was displaying the flag.

The theatre managers all agreed to place flags except one in which there was some misunderstanding The delegathes quoted the law as follows. In an act of April 2, 1921, and approved April 6, 1921 it reads, that all places of public amusement must display the American flag. The affair was settled yesterday.

Arrest Newsboy On Disorder Charge

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., April 28.—Several complaints have been coming in to the local police concerning the noise made by the venders of out-of town newspapers. The climax came yesterday when the ears of Chief Teeter were assailed by shrill cries.

An officer was sent to quiet the youngsters and returned with one by the cuff of his neck. The boy had, according to the officer, been sassy and he promptly brought him into the station on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The boy was 17 years of age and was selling the Youngstown Vindicator. The matter was settled by a telephone call from the paper promising to keep the boy out of Ellwood in the future.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

A SURPRISED LITTLE HOSTESS

What funny little fellows these Chipmunks were! Their quarrels were not a bit more serious nor more lasting than April showers. At Peter's words the Chipmunk who had sneaked in to steal his brother's stores chuckled.

"Chip! Chip! You are a fine host, brother. Keeping your guest in your pantry! The very idea! Why don't you show him about your house? Has he seen your bedroom yet?"

"No!" confessed the other. "He hasn't and 'tis as fine a bedroom as any Chipmunk in the land can boast.

The fuss forgotten, side by side down the burrow trotted the brothers, the boy following closely behind them, and soon the way grew lighter. Before they had gone very far a third Chipmunk darted out of a side door and frisked up to greet them. There was something so motherly looking about her the Boy guessed at once that here was Mrs. Tamias, and it was.

"Hello, husband!" cried she. "Where in the world have you been? Some time ago one of the children came running with the news that old Cutie Fox was at the door. I waited and waited, and you did not come, and I have been worried to death. I began to fear that he had caught you at last, although I did think you were too wise to stay within reach of his paws if you got his scent. Accidents will happen in the best of Chipmunk families. How glad I am to see you safe and sound, old dear! Good-day brother-in-law! I haven't a bit of doubt but that you came to steal, but since you seem to be in husband's good graces right now, I haven't a word to say. You would be a fine fellow if you weren't so sneaky. But there, I'll speak no more of that. You could say a few things about us if you wanted to. Chip! Chip! Who is this? A stranger and a Two-Legs unless my eyes deceive me. Husband, what is that small Human doing in our house?"

"He is here as my guest, my dear, and I want you to be nice to him. He is a jolly sort when you know him—not a bit like the big Two-Legs one generally meets, although I must say I have always liked his race. He wants to see our home. I know he does. I have already taken him to the pantry and I thought perhaps you would show him the bedroom." Chipmunk looked inquiringly at his wife.

"The bedroom is a strange place to take a perfect stranger. I am not sure that I like the idea", said she. "Suppose some night while we were sleeping little Two-Legs walked in to do our babies harm? We have a hard enough time looking out for Weasel. We don't want to take any chances with anyone about whom we know nothing."

"Chip! Chip! Don't be silly, Wifie dear! You don't suppose I would bring a suspicious character home with me, do you?" chattered Chipmunk indignantly. "I do know about Two-Legs, here. He has the Blue Lizard's tail in his pocket."

Next: "Housekeeping in Chipmunk Town."

By ED. FRITZ

Time was when Old Man Pirate, with an aggregation of bloodthirsty cut-throats yielding to his every beck and call, unisoned in the cry for a bottle of rum and a chest filled with Spanish treasure, but that was yesteryear and in its place has come the cry of millions, "Play ball!"

And on May 7, to be precise, the umpires in the Lawrence county loop will yell "Play ball!" and eight teams, representative of different sections in New Castle and Lawrence county, will play ball with emphasis on every letter of the two words and fandom's appetite for national pastiming will be complete.

Their words will usher a fourth season into effect for the Lawrence county circuit, scheduled when it was originated for disruption by the pessimistic and "knockers" apparently has prospered and during summer days when Mr. Workingman wants to see a baseball game after his day's toil is through he travels to a Lawrence county loop tilt.

None of the players in the league are first-class; none of them can fill the shoes of the Waner brothers as yet. Neither do any of their followers term them a second Hornsby, Ruth or Alexander. Nevertheless, they are Lawrence countians, bent for a goal—the major leagues.

Last season Ellwood City captured the pennant. They won from the Neshannocks, who got away with the much prized bunting in 1925, while the year previous the Rick-Overlands took the honors by taking the first pennant. During those three years fans have witnessed baseball between evenly mated aggregations.

Fans in the sections represented by the teams have been loyal to the players. They have refrained from "hammering" and have shown by their presence at ball tilts that they want the kind of baseball provided by the league teams where everybody knows each player by his first name.

As an illustration to show how smoothly the machinery in the league operates, the writer, as a commissioner last year, was not called upon to decide one grievance, which shows that players and managers alike know the rules, obey the rules and assist rather than hamper the officials who are interested in the league.

The managers of the teams this year follow:

Ellwood City, Joe Dougherty.
Energy, George Hogue.
Wampum, Bob Robertson.
Pennsylvania Railroad, Dan Potter.
Bessemer, Hub Hart.
Croton, A. Colaluca.
Independent A. A., Bill Chill.
Neshannocks, Jokey Travers.

All of the teams will play on thir home lots excepting the Independent A. A., which will represent the West Side and Union township and stage their home games at Scotland Lane. The P. R. R. will play at Mahoningtown.

The P. R. R. is a new team and yet really an old team in the league. The only change in name is for the purpose of keeping P. R. R. players in trim to participate in inter-division tilts.

Croton is a new team in the league and last season occupied a berth in the Twilight League. When an opening presented itself Croton applied and was accepted, as the league principle is for the advancement of players who deserve a chance.

In winning the Boston A. A. Marathon five times, besides several other full-distance marathons, Clarence DeMar, the 38-year-old Melrose printer, has set up a record that is unparalleled and may never be approached by an individual.

The Dixie Handicap to be run at Pimlico on May 2 will carry $25,000 in added money.

Shop Boys Capture Swimming Meet At Ben Franklin High

"The liniment ads are going to get a terrible bump if Connie Mack's star veterans don't get going pretty soon."

Fred Schuller Wins Handsome Trophy Cup For High Point Scorer

Final Meet Of Year At Franklin Pool Proves Interesting Event

The Shop Boys won the final swimming meet of the year in the Ben Franklin High pool on Wednesday afternoon by securing 44 points in the eight events. The Ninth Grade team was second with 25 points, the Eighth Grade third with 23 points and the Seventh Grade fourth with 6 points. The meet was staged under the supervision of Edwin H. Geasa swimming instructor.

The final meet of the year proved to be one of the best of the program with close races in all events and with plenty of competition. Several surprises were in store for the spectators as James Herbold defeated Fred Schuller in the back stroke and John Watson took first place in the fancy diving contest. Mr. Geasa was very well pleased with the showing made by the boys and their efforts in swimming.

Russel Grannis and John Watson tied for the individual high scorer in yesterday's meet with 12 1-2 points apiece. Fred Schuller was third highest with 11 points, and James Herbold was fourth with 10 points.

Schuller Wins Cup

Fred Schuller captured the handsome loving cup donated by Jack Gerson to the high individual scorer for four meets held this year. Schuller had a total of 56 points, while Russel Grannis was a close second with 50 points. Schuller also won the trophy cup last year. The youngster is one of the best swimmers to be developed at the Franklin pool since its existence.

Mr. Geasa had charge of the meet as starter, finish judge and judge of fancy diving, while Nelson Yingling had charge of the entries.

Swimming chapel will be held at the Franklin High auditorium on the morning of May 12, when the loving cups will be presented to the winners and also swimming letters awarded. A swimmer has to make 20 points in the four meets to earn his insignia.

Following are the results of the meet held yesterday:

Events

40 yards free style—Russell Grannis, Shop, first; Emery Farrone, 9th, second; Isreal Soloman, 7th, third; 8th grade not entered.

Plunge for distance—Abe Vago, 8, first, 43 feet; Askounus, 8, second, 41 ft.; Soloman, 7th 3rd, 36 ft. Red Bender, Shop, fourth, 33 feet.

120 yards medley—Fred Schuller, first; James Herbold, 9th, second; Chas. Fleming, 8th, third; 7th grade didn't finish.

60 yards breast stroke—John Watson, Shop, first, Harry Mooney, 8th, second; Dale Heasley, 9th, third; 7th grade not entered.

60 yards Back stroke—James Herbold, 9th, first; Fred Schuller, shop, second; Harry Mooney, 8th, third; Otto Mackey, 7th, fourth.

100 yards free style—R. Grannis, shop, first; W. Hempel, 9th, second; A. Mackey, 8th, third; I. Soloman, 7th, fourth.

Fancy diving—J. Watson, shop, first; F. Schuller, shop, second; Red Bender, shop, third; J. Miron, 9th, fourth.

160 yard relay race—Shop, first, Watson, Bender, Nessell, Grannis; 9th grade, second, Heasley, Herbold, Farrone, Hempel; 8th grade, third, Mackey, Mooney, Fleming, Pericles.

Blake In Form, Chicago Wins

Sheriff Blake Chases Jinx And Defeats Cincinnati In Fast Game

LEFTY GROVE IS WINNING PITCHER

By LES CONKLIN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 28.—It's a long lane that has no turning, and Sheriff John Blake of the Cubs today has conquered a jinx that pursued him through four long years in the National league. During those four lean seasons he could trim the Pirates, the Giants, the Cardinals and others clubs, but the Cincinnati Reds beat him every time he faced them. Yesterday the lanky West Virginian downed the Porkville boys for the first time since he stopped getting Badger haircuts and learned how to climb into an upper berth.

Blake just managed to stagger home with the bacon yesterday by a score of 2 to 1. The Sheriff's good luck was Pete Donohue's misfortune, for it was the third time that the Cincinnati mound ace lost a 2 to 1 contest this season. An error by Ford let in the winning run.

The game was the only contest played in the National league. In the junior circuit, the Browns regained second place by downing the Indians, 4 to 2, in ten innings. Sherry Smith acted as pallbearer at his own funeral, for his wild throw in the last inning lost the game.

Lefty Grove of the Athletics toyed with the Red Sox, holding them to six hits and winning 4 to 1. The victory enabled the Mackmen to tie the Senators for third place. Lamar collected three hits including a home run and Ty Cobb got two bingles.

George Moriarty's tenor sounds a bit sour today, for his Tigers lost to the White Sox, 7 to 2. Detroit is now first in the production of automobiles, fourth in population among American cities, and seventh in the American league.

AGENDA CLUB HAS BANQUET

Samuels Acts As Toastmaster; Music By Agenda Four

Agenda Club installed their newly elected officers last night with a banquet, held at the Merrydotte Tea Caddy. After a very delicious meal, Alec Samuels, master of the ceremonies for the evening was toastmaster. In his address he gave a review of last year's club activities and outlined the different affairs for the coming year. Gus Slovonsky delivered an enthusiastic speech.

The music of the evening was furnished by the Agenda Trio, Wachs, Ginnsburg and Markley. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all. Those present were: President Gus Slovonsky, Vice President Alec Samuels, Secretary and Treasurer Paul Braunstein, William Freidman, William Brody, Harold Gerson, Nate Ginsburg, Ralph Markley, Irvin Robins, Archie Rossenberg, Max E. Samuels and Jack Wachs.

Challenge Hurled By Hoodoo Nine

The Hoodoo nine issues a challenge to any of the following junior teams: Red Tops, South Side Pirates, Capitols and Juniors, Seniors and Sophomores of the senior high school.

Evans To Fight Montana Battler

Webster Is Reputed By Zill To Be A Hard Puncher

FORMER SOUTH HIGH STUDENT TO FIGHT

YOUNGSTOWN, April 28.—With the signed contracts of both, Al Webster and Dick Evans in, and forfeit checks posted by both men, everything is in readiness for Al Zill's boxing card to be run off at the Rayon-Wood auditorium, at Youngstown, Ohio, on April 29.

In meeting Al Webster, of Billings, Montana, Dick Evans will be meeting the toughest boy that he has been called upon to meet since returning to this city. Webster and Jimmy Jones boxed the greatest twelve round draw that western fans have ever seen, in Great Falls, Montana, and judging from the reports of that battle, and personal criticism, this lad Webster seems fated to be the boy to halt the debonair Dicks winning streak.

A rough, tough hard punching fighter, that doesn't know the meaning of the word backup. A boy that is dangerous at all times, a boy that will keep coming under a rain of punches, and a boy that has the stamina to stand up under the hardest punches. That dear folks is Mr. Al Webster, of Billings, Montana, and the boy that Mr. Evans will have to get over next Friday night.

Mike Hector and Jack Herman should furnish plenty of fireworks in the semi-final bout of six rounds. Both of these lads are the owners of sleep producing punches in both mitts. Both boys are game and can take it, and both are fairly clever boxer with the edge going to the ex-naval boy.

Pee Wee Donald and Phill Goldstein will furnish the speed on this program, as both these mites of the prize ring are rated right up among the top notchers of the bantam brigate.

Heavyweights will also hold their place in the sun when Jack Spencer, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Harold Scarnecchia, former South High football star, clash in the first four rounder on the card.

Johnny Kusic, the elongated feather of Tom Bannon's stable will tackle Frankie Sunday, of Akron, Ohio, in the second four rounder of the card. Jack Lumber and Eddie Copper will furnish the music for the four round curtain raiser, and the last two named will crawl between the ropes at 8:15 p. m.

Pirates To Meet Chicago Today

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH April 28.—Greeted by perfect football weather the kind that makes good baseball go wrong, the Pittsburgh Pirates came home today for six more games with the Cubs and Cardinals before starting their first eastern road trip.

"Bullet" Joe Bush will make his season debut for the Pirates while the Cubs plan to let Charley Root do their pitching.

Robinson Shakes Up Dodgers; Seeks More Hitting Power

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Failing to get George Kelly of the Reds or Jake Flowers of the Cardinals in projected trades, Manager Wilbert Robinson of the Brooklyn Robins today made wholesale shifts in his line-up. He said he would bench Outfielders Max Carey and Gus Felix, starting today, using Statz, Hendrick and Meusel in the outfield. In the infield Robinson planned to start Herman, Partridge, Butler and Marriott.

Robinson offered to trade Statz to the Oakland Pacific coast club for Outfielder Buz Arlett, but the offer was rejected.

Scoring Record Of Liberty Five Champs

Hold Championship Of City Junior League; Jenkins High With 135 Points

New Castle's Liberty Five basketball team completed one of their most successful seasons this year, with 17 victories and five defeats. When the "finis" curtain was rung down these lads were in possession of the junior championship of the city, having defeated the Peerless Club five in a three-game series for honor. Charles "Bub" Jones of the championship Rick-Overlands, leaders of the Senior League, coached these boys into scoring 680 points to their opponents' 464. In individual scoring Jenkins held honors, with 55 field goals and 25 fouls, a total of 135 points.

The record for the season 1926-27 follows:

Liberty Five, 30; South Side Ramblers, 10.

MIDGETS SEEK BALL GAMES

The South Side Midgets would like to schedule games with all first class midget teams in New Castle and Lawrence county. The Midgets can assure any team of a fast game.

The Silver Tops and Pontiacs are asked to take notice of this challenge. For games call Norman Nocera.

New Castle Club To Open Season Saturday Meeting Youngstown

Opening Game Of Year Here Will Start At 3 O'clock, Announced Today

Locals Held Back By Inclement Weather; Will Practice Today

Jupitor Pluvius having accomplished his purpose in life for the past several days, appears to have had a "fade-out" today and with good warm weather and a fair portion of sunshine, the New Castle team of the O. & P. league will hustle to Centennial Field for practice.

The New Castle boys are called on to open their season here Saturday afternoon with the Youngstown General Tires as the opponents. To date the locals have been unable to practice owing to the extremely damp weather. Today it is different, and rehearsals will start in earnest.

The officials of the club announced today that the game Saturday would start at 3 o'clock Daylight Savings Time. All Saturday games this year will start at 3 o'clock.

While no definite lineup for the opening game has been given out by the officials, it is the guess of the writer that the team will be composed of Weimer, General, McCullough, Bloom, Flynn, Grabfelder, Raley, Maxim, Cleary, Bolschak, Schachern, Meis and Jamieson.

Practice has been called for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Pave Way For Dempsey And Paolino Bout

Dempsey-Paolino Fight July 1 Is Now Problematic

DEMPSEY INCLINED TO SCOFF BOUT

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, April 28.—Paolino Uzcudun and his managerial board, a body of men completely surrounded by one prize fighter, will advance by forced marches on the New York boxing commission tomorrow and, when the random has happily ceased, it is intimated that all but one possible barrier between a Dempsey-Paolino meeting on July 1 will have been prostrated. Paolino himself, not a song and dance, did the intimating in person today and the only exception in the way of barriers he could visualize was that Dempsey might be afraid to meet him.

The gentleman was as serious as a broken leg when he made the pop-off in question. He had been informed that Dempsey privately had sneered brutally at his pretensions as an opponent and Paolino figures he can "rap" to the right answer on that one.

"Fear," he observed through Al Mayer, his interpreter, Pal and unsevere critic. "What else am I to think?"

The writer could have given him several suggestions, even exclusive of the one about thinking again, but didn't.

Paolino Barred.

Anyhow, Paolino and his bodyguard have jumped to the conclusion that the first thing to do about fighting Dempsey is to have the curse taken off Paolino's suspension in this state and this they will attempt to do tomorrow. They intimate that this action is nothing more than a formality.

It seems that the gent was set down some days ago at the request of the Massachusetts board because of his marked reluctance to frolic in Boston, as per reputed contract, with Ed Keeley. The Boston promoter, Ed Mack, claims that Paolino signed for the Keeley fight for April 18 and then thought better of it, for which he is not to be judged too harshly. Keely is a left handed heavyweight, which means aromatic spirits of ammonia to a sap like Paolino.

Mayer claims that no contract was signed with Mack; that he merely told the Boston man that Paolino would fight any satisfactory heavyweight for him. He hastens to add that Keeley is somewhat unsatisfactory. That is the story he will tell the New York commission tomorrow and then there will be nothing for it but for the commission to up and apologize like little gentlemen.

At this point, Paolino made sounds like a singing waiter.

"He says: 'After that, Dempsey,'" Mayer interpreted.

The manager, who once had a silent interest in Firpo—then warned to his rhetoric to declaim that neither Sharkey nor Maloney could give Dempsey the trouble Paolino would and will. That both have been knocked out by inferior men while Paolino never has been on the floor. That a rushing, aggressive fighter like Paolino would draw a million dollars with Dempsey; that his strength and endurance in a fifteen round fight will beat down any man, since no one yet has been able to last that long with him, etc., etc., until exhausted.

Terrible Terry — By Feg Murray

Among those who must have cheered (inwardly, if not loudly) when John McGraw traded "Long George" Kelly to Cincinnati for Eddie Roush, was William Harold Terry, substitute first baseman of the New York Giants. For that little trade besides giving Terry's team one thing it needed badly—a good center fielder—gave Terry the chance he wanted badly, that of playing regularly at first base for New York.

That trade will however, always be something of a mystery to me for why should Jack Hendricks, manager of the Reds give up one of his star players for a first baseman when he already had Wallie Pipp, who was doing quite well thank you? McGraw's view point is easy to understand for he and Terry too both feel that playing a regular, the young first baseman will bat far better than his average of .289, compiled in 98 games in 1926.

Brooklyn boasted of "Terrible Terry" McGovern in years gone by and now will New York boast long and loudly of a "Terrible Terry" or will the boasts turn to wreaths of razzbrries and the cheers to those of the Bronx variety? Bill Terry is not the greatest fielder in the world, his 1926 average being only .979 in 38 games at first but he held ten points higher in 126 games the year before. And his work in the 1924 world series when he hit .429 in five games after only one season as Kelly's substitute, must have weighed heavily with his boss.

Bill Terry's lusty wallop should endear him to the hearts of the fans during the coming season. It was only a couple of seasons ago that Bill poled out a hit that went clear out to the Eddie Grant monument at the Polo grounds and when measured proved to be all of 426 feet. Bill's marked for success, I feel. In 1924 the year that Harold "Red" Grange first made the world ring to his prowess, William Harold Terry came to the Giants and played in 77 games. Everybody knows that that combination of name and number leads to fame and fortune in sports.

Terry showed his punch in the season's opening game when he got three hits including a home run with the bases full.

Feg Murray Says.

There is no doubt in the minds of that bellicose Uruguyan team which visited the United States lately as to the spelling of the name of the game they play. It is SOCK-er.

Tennis Team Will Play Pitt Friday

Westminster's Blue Tennis Team Hold Hopes For Victory Under McDowell

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., April 28.—Westminster's program of spring sports will be officially inaugurated Friday, when the Blue tennis team travels to Pittsburgh to meet the University of Pittsburgh string quartet. It will be the first match for both schools.

Rain this week has hampered the Westminster squad in reaching form. Several elimination matches were reeled off Monday to decide positions, but play was impossible Tuesday and Wednesday, and as a result as late as Wednesday evening the personnel of the team which will face Pitt is undetermined.

This much is certain: Bill Clark of New Wilmington will play number one, with Captain McDowell of Jamestown and William Shaffer of Youngstown having the next two positions. Number four is a toss-up between Paul Gibson of New Kensington and Dick Robinson of Massillon, O. The latter pair are veterans and rather fairly matched. It was hoped to have them meet Wednesday afternoon, but then the best laid plans, etc.

In the doubles it is very probable Captain McDowell will pair up with Clark. Shaffer will have as his partner either Gibson or Robinson.

The match with Pitt will be the first college play for both Clark and Shaffer. The test will be a severe one, since Pitt has Byron Baur, western Pennsylvania singles champ, two O'Loughlin brothers and Lauler.

The outcome of the contest will have no bearing on Westminster's Conference standing. The chase for Conference honors will get under way May 6, when Duquesne is met at Pittsburgh. May 7 the team will face Bethany at Bethany. The team will make its first home appearance May 14, when Bethany is played here.

Brazilian Flier Hopes To Cross Atlantic Ocean

(International News Service)

RIO JANIERO, April 28.—The Brazilian hydroplane, "Jahu" under the command of the Brazilian aviator Ribeiro Barros, took off from Porto Praia, Cape Verde Island, at 4:12 a. m. today in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic, according to reports from Fernando De Noronha.

The plane is expected to arrive at Fernando at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Allegheny County Man Is Named As Highway Engineer

Samuel Eckles Succeeds Connell As State Highway Engineer

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 28.—Appointment of Samuel Eckles, Allegheny county, as chief engineer of the highway department today had ended a long political controversy which revolved about the $12,000 a year post.

Eckles succeeds William H. Connell, Philadelphia, who bore the title of engineering executive and deputy secretary.

Connell did not resign until yesterday, a day after Eckles had quit his post in Allegheny county to join the department. He was in Philadelphia when the resignation was announced. Copies of his letter of resignation have not yet been made public.

Reports that Connell and Secretary James L. Stuart did not agree concerning the location of proposed road construction projects have been frequent in recent weeks but never have been confirmed.

Administrator Of Prohibition To Be Investigated

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, April 28.—An investigation into the activities of a number of prohibition administrators has been launched by Gen. L. C. Andrews, dry chief, it was learned today. Personnel changes in some sections may be the result.

The situation in Southern California is being investigated by Alf Oftedal, chief of the bureau of internal special intelligence unit on the Pacific coast, where Administrator Frank McReynolds had differences with Collector of Customs Schwabe, of Los Angeles.

Andrews has asked for a detailed report from Administrator Ira L. Reeves, of New Jersey, on the seizure under customs laws of a quantity of liquor from a private house.

Charges of unnecessary violence have been preferred against agents at Baltimore working under Administrator John F. Herbert.

Andrews personally is studying the situation on New York City where Administrator Chester P. Mills has been under the fire of Rep. Laguardia (R) of New York. Andrews was in New York yesterday.

Paddy Ryan was handed the heavyweight championship without a fight.

Youth Clings To Life As Friends Keep Up Vigil

(International News Service)

ROANOKE, Va., April 28.—Walter L. Boothe, the 18-year-old youth who has been kept alive for nearly five days by artificial respiration, induced by the untiring efforts of his friends, was better today.

"Its amazing, but true," said a physician at Jefferson hospital where the grim battle is being waged night and day. The tenacity with which the wasted youth clings to life has astounded the staff of physicians.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Early Career of the "Alabama." by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

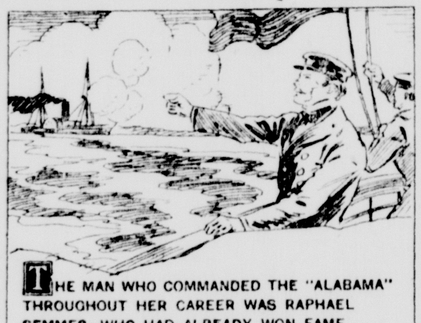
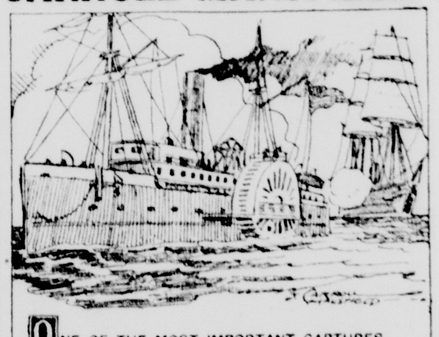
Registered U. S. Patent Office.

THE "ALABAMA", A SCREW STEAMER OF 1,050 TONS, WAS THE MOST FAMOUS OF CONFEDERATE PRIVATEERS. SHE WAS BUILT AS THE "NUMBER 290" IN LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND, FOR THE CONFEDERATE GOVERNMENT AND HER PURPOSE AND DESTINATION KEPT A SECRET.



THE MAN WHO COMMANDED THE "ALABAMA" THROUGHOUT HER CAREER WAS RAPHAEL SEMMES, WHO HAD ALREADY WON FAME ABOARD THE CONFEDERATE PRIVATEER, "SUMTER". ON JUNE 30, 1861, SEMMES BOLDLY RAN THE "SUMTER" OUT PAST THE UNION BLOCKADING SHIPS AT THE MOUTH OF THE MISSISSIPPI. AFTER DESTROYING MUCH FEDERAL PROPERTY THE "SUMTER" WAS BOTTLED UP IN GIBRALTAR BY UNION VESSELS AND SOLD TO PREVENT HER CAPTURE.

IN JULY, 1862, THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, AT THE DEMAND OF ADAMS, AMERICAN MINISTER TO ENGLAND, ORDERED THE "NUMBER 290" TO BE DETAINED. BEFORE ACTION COULD BE TAKEN, THE VESSEL SLIPPED AWAY TO THE AZORES, WHERE SHE WAS TURNED OVER TO CAPT. SEMMES AND TOOK ON GUNS AND MEN. AS THE "ALABAMA" SHE SET OUT TO PREY ON UNION SHIPPING.



ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT CAPTURES MADE BY THE "ALABAMA" WAS THAT OF THE U. S. MAIL STEAMER "ARIEL", WHICH SHE INTERCEPTED OFF THE EAST COAST OF CUBA ON DEC. 7, 1862. DURING HER CAREER THE "ALABAMA" TOOK 65 SHIPS AND DESTROYED PROPERTY WORTH MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 28.—Wednesday's closing reaction was extended to other sections of the market at the beginning of trading today. Railroad shares were freely sold on the lower weekly car loading report for April 16, which reflected in part the effect of the bituminous coal strike and the Mississippi flood on business conditions.

The stocks market as a whole was dull and reactionary, with comparatively little outside demand, and the professionals generally inclined to sell. A few of the outstanding exceptions to this rule were seen in the spectacular advance of Bangor and Aroostock Railroad, which carried its advance to above 84, completing a gain of 40 points on the move; South Porto Rico Sugar up 3½ to a new high at 196; Case Threshing Machine up 3 at 179 and Laclede Gas up 2½.

The commodity markets were fairly steady. Call money was in good supply at 4 per cent.

TROOP 18

The Highland U. P. church troop 18 held its weekly meeting Tuesday evening, April 26, with a large attendance of scouts. Troop Committeeman Boston was present. Scoutmaster R. F. Davis and Assistant Scoutmaster Bott were in charge of the meeting.

Saturday evening this troop will help with the traffic at the Cathedral for the I. O. O. F. meeting. Camporee practice will also be carried on over the week end.

The meeting Tuesday evening was in the form of a test night. The following tests were passed: David Nesbit—Merit badge in firemanship; Hugh Schmidt, knife and hatchet; Ted Conlin, knife and hatchet, fire lighting and cooking; Loren Kennenburg, knife and hatchet, compass, fire lighting and cooking; Robert McKibben, scout oath. Several other tests were begun.

A close check-up on bars and badges to be received by the boys of this troop for forestry work done this year results in the following: Badges will be awarded to Bill Bishop and Hugh Schmidt; bars will be awarded to the following, Bob Hoose, James Boughter, Frank Dorsey, David Nesbit, Jack Stevenson, Howard Gates, Thorston Nelson, Dick Byers, Willard Irwin, Bill Brown, Lee Sappington and Harold Burry.

Troop Scribe—Harold Burry.

TROOP 15

The First Christian church troop 15 will hold a meeting Thursday evening in the church from 7:30 to 9:00. Plans will be made to direct traffic and park cars at the Cathedral on Saturday for the I. O. O. F. meeting. The speaker of the evening will be Mr. Harold McCullouch. Scoutmaster Sidney L. Smith desires all members of the troop to be present as it is an important meeting.

After the Scout meeting a meeting will be held by the Pine Tree Patrol under the leadership of Patrol Leader George McCracken and Assistant Patrol Leader Ben Nessle. Plans will be made for an overnight hike for the purpose of practicing for the Camporee.

Scribe—George McCracken.

BOARD OF REVIEW

The Board of Review will meet Saturday, April 30, between the hours of 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. All cards must be turned in, by those expecting to take part, by Friday.

SCOUTLEADERS TO MEET

A very important meeting of the Scoutleaders of the Lawrence County Council will be held Friday evening, April 29, at 7:30 in Scout Headquarters, Greer building.

The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the Spring Camporee, to be held in the near future. Another phase of the meeting will be a detailed discussion of the summer camp, annually conducted by the Council. Such things as dates, periods, and routine will be discussed.

SCOUT TRAFFIC OFFICERS

When the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, who will gather in the Cathedral here from all over Western Pennsylvania, meets Saturday, April 30, the Boy Scouts of New Castle will act as traffic officers for the parking of cars. It will be necessary that all boys wear the red neckerchief to designate them as scouts. They must also wear as much of their uniform as they have.

Bridges Needed Here, Dysart Says

Until They Are Erected, Traffic Will Be Congested, He Says

LOTS OF TALK, BUT NO ACTION, HE SAYS

"There has been considerable talk and no action and until there is action traffic will be congested in East Washington street" said Chief of Police Henry Dysart today during a discussion of traffic conditions here.

"Traffic to and from the East side flows through one route—the bridge spanning the Neshannock in East Washington street.

"We should have two new bridges, one north and another south of East Washington street. "Until we get the bridges traffic will be congested in East Washington street, regardless of police or traffic lights."

Brief but true, say those who have watched traffic conditions grow from a pebble to a mountainous problem within 10 years.

Councilmen declare the county of Lawrence should take steps to erect the bridges.

The city already owns ground at North street and the Neshannock river and it is said they would like to see some action taken providing outlets for traffic, which would help solve the problem.

Asks Police Aid To Find Clothing And Suit Case

Officer Thomas Lynch had the prize case this morning. It really had its inception a few days ago, when a man, who is engaged in the occupation of farmhand in the vicinity of this city, came to town with half a month's pay.

The lights of the city were too much for the man. He was blinded by their brilliancy and the first thing he knew, he was at the police station asking the assistance of the department in helping him locate his clothing, also his suitcase.

The alcorub had been just a little too much for him.

The police went to his rescue and the hunt for his clothing resulted in indignant protests from various rooming house proprietors, where inquiry was made.

Climax in the incident occurred this morning, when the man, who was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, claimed that he had left his suitcase in a restaurant in the First Ward. Officer Lynch and he started on the rounds and visited one after another without result, when the officer decided to inquire at a pawnshop in the district.

The result was very satisfactory, as the suitcase was located there, with a $2 loan against it. The search ceased, while the man made an effort to get money enough to recover his clothing.

COAL SITUATION IS "QUIET", SAYS JOHN L. LEWIS

whole Lewis characterized as "quiet." He pointed out that the seasonal slump in the coal industry is at hand, and that any effect which the suspension might have upon the industry would not be apparent to any degree at this time, when there is usually a large surplus of coal on hand in storage.

"However," he said, "when the reserve supplies of coal have vanished, later in the season, then our suspension will be felt."

The morale of the striking miners, Lewis said, is excellent. "From the standpoint of ultimate success for the United Mine Workers, the situation is everything that can be desired."

Lewis said that although the Pittsburgh Coal Company had increased its force of coal and iron police approximately 350 men recently, with a total monthly cost of $80,000 the company is meeting with "flat failure" in its activities against the union.

"The United Mine Workers," he said, "are prepared to hold out until the company is ready to come to us with offers to treat with our men on a basis of collective bargaining."

Reports Misleading

The mine union leader said that federal reports that 8,000,000 tons of coal a week were being mined since the suspension in bituminous fields were apt to be misleading when contrasted with the figure of 13,000,000 tons weekly before the suspension.

"Of this 8,000,000 tons, a considerable portion is being mined by union labor," Lewis said. "In many sections of the country, there are local agreements between the union and operators, so that no suspension is in effect there." This is notably true in Central Pennsylvania, Lewis said.

Lewis prophesied the ultimate crumbling of the Pittsburgh Coal Company's opposition to the United Mine Workers.

"Already," he said, "we are reliably informed of dissention among the board of directors of the company."

Lewis bitterly attacked W. G. Warden, chairman of the board of directors, he alleged, "stands in the way of the company's making money by blind opposition to unionism."

The union leader said his presence in Pittsburgh today was for the purpose of conferring with Murray and P. T. Fagan, president of the district organization, and that he did not plan any conference with independent operators.

He will leave tonight for his headquarters in Indianapolis, returning soon to the Pittsburgh district to address a number of public gatherings.

End Of "New York To Paris" Plane

This remarkable picture shows the disastrous end of what was to have been the first airplane flight from New York to Paris. Lieut. Commander Neel Davis and Lieut Stanton H. Wooster were killed while making a forced landing during a trial flight of the giant "American Legion." The plane turned its nose into the mud in a marsh near Massick, Va., causing the instant death of both fliers. Note the crumpled nose of the plane from which their bodies were extricated. Pictures rushed by special plane and fast train. (International Newsreel).

Radio Commission In Fight For Freedom Of Speech In Broadcasting

By ROBERT S. THORNBURGH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON April 28.—An appeal to broadcasting stations to observe the recognized American principles of free spech is under consideration by the federal radio commission.

Commissioner H. A. Bellows said today that while the federal law gives the commission no power of censorship over programs, broadcasters may be asked to co-operate to assure freedom of speech.

"If the broadcasters do not carry out these principles congress may step in with an amendment to compel their recognition" Bellows said.

"Broadcasting stations under the law are not a public utility yet, despite claims to this effect that have been placed before the commission. Their programs cannot be regulated except in a degree to say what cannot be done. We are endeavoring to consider the stations as a combination of the theatre and the newspaper."

Because of the claim that speakers discussing controversial subjects have been' cut off' or forced to talk to "dead microphones," and that others have been refused permission to appear at all unless they submitted their talks for censorship by the station management many complaints have been brought to the commission.

Under existing law the operator of a broadcasting station has the same right to censor the programs presented as has the editor to reject information to be published in his newspaper or magazine.

Equal Rights

The only exception to the right of censorship contained in the radio law provides that all political parties shall have equal rights "on the air." Stations which present one political viewpoint may be reviewed by opposing parties to make the microphone similarly available.

With the opening of the national campaign next year it was anticipated that the radio would be used widely in presenting the various political issues. Difficulty in enforcing the political equality provisions of the law are anticipated.

The commission today had under consideration about 50 additional applications for temporary broadcasting permits. Officials said that most of these stations probably would be granted licenses, although many may be jammed into the so called "radio graveyard" at the bottom of the broadcast band. Most of the graveyard broadcasters will operate on low power.

By the end of the week the final list of temporary permits will be announced, after which no more stations will be given licenses except under unusual circumstances.

Several Injured; Trolleys Collide

Indiana Harbor Electric Line Cars Crash In Heavy Fog Today

(International News Service)

GARY, Ind., April 28. — Eleven were injured, several seriously in a head-on collision between two Indiana Harbor electric line cars today.

Both cars immediately caught fire and were almost completely destroyed.

A heavy fog was believed responsible for the crash.

Presence of mind of Lawrence Cable, one of the motormen, was believed to have saved many lives. He opened the doors after throwing on the brakes and shouted a warning to the passengers.

Airplanes Now Sold On Installment Plan

LONDON, April 28.—Enterprising airplane dealers have entered the installment plan held alongside the furniture houses and real estate agents.

In London, under the new order of affairs, two-seated Moths, fully equipped, may now be purchased for 230 pounds down (roughly $1,150) and twenty four monthly payments of 24 pounds 15 shillings.

The installment plan ship has an 80-horsepower engine of the latest type and can do 100 miles an hour. A prospective purchaser may inspect "samples" in the downtown shops, pay down his cash, go to Stag Lane Aerodrome, in the Edgeware Road, on the outskirts of London, and fly away in his new Moth with all the pride of the shopper who gets what he wants when he wants it.

MUSTACHE IGNITING CAUSES EXCITEMENT AMONG HOTEL GUESTS

BUTLER, Pa., April 27.—Here's another argument for shorter mustaches.

Sometime during the night a guest at the Hotel Nixon retired with a cigaret in his mouth. Presently there was the alarm of fire.

Smoke issued through the transom, and excitement reigned unabated—until the facts were discovered. The guest's mustache caught fire, and ignited the bedclothes.

Little damage was done, although several guests' sleep was disturbed, including the man with the mustache.

One reason why America feels brotherly love for the chap far, far away is because he's too far away for his cornet to be heard.

We have no distinct upper class but there is a class that doesn't know how many pounds of air a Lizzie tire carries.

Georgia Fights In Courts To Get Signature Of Button Gwinnett

By RAYMOND L. BORST.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ALBANY, N. Y., April 28.—Whether the signature of Button Gwinnett, Georgia signer of the Declaration of Independence which was affixed in 1770 to the will of Joseph Stanley, Colonial merchant of Savannah, Ga., is to be returned to the state of Georgia or is to be added to the collection of Dr. A. S. Rosenbach of Philadelphia will be known within a month.

Supreme Court Justice Ellis J. Staley of this city is expected to hand down a decision by the middle of May deciding the ownership of the Gwinnett signature.

Gwinnett's signature is highly prized by autograph collectors. While still a young man Gwinnett was killed in a duel with a General McIntosh.

The late Colonel Jas. H. Manning of Albany one of the leading autograph collectors of the country bought the Stanley will bearing Gwinnett's signature at public auction in Philadelphia in 1912 for $4,600.

After Colonel Manning's death in 1925 his estate offered the Gwinnett signature for sale through the Anderson Galleries Inc., of New York city. Dr. Rosenbach of Philadelphia was the high bidder for the signature with $22,500. Before he had actually paid for the ancient document however Georgia raised the claim that the Stanley will was its property and had mysteriously disappeared from its archives sometime after 1816.

Dr. Rosenbach refused to pay for the signature pending action to determine its legal ownership. He testified before Justice Staley however that he would gladly hand over $22,500 for the Stanley will if the court determined the Manning estate was the lawful owner.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

"Purges" and "Physics" Bad for Old Folks

While Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, knew that constipation was the curse of advancing age, he did not believe that a "purge" or "physic" every little while was necessary.

To him, it seemed cruel that so many constipated old people had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to "regulate" the bowels of old folks. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but each dose helps to strengthen the bowel muscles, shortly establishing natural "regularity". It never gripes, sickens, or upsets the system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

If past fifty, buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin", Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself

HOUSEHOLD HINTS
BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT

Strawberries shipped from the South are plentiful in the cities these spring days, and the home-grown variety will soon be on hand in the smaller places. Have you tried strawberry sauce to serve with your favorite plain cake or over the shortcake instead of using the berries in the usual way?

Veal and Tomato Bisque
Toasted Bread Strips
Jellied Veal Creamed Potatoes
Head Lettuce with French Dressing
Cake with Strawberry Sauce
Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Veal and Tomato Bisque—Three pints veal stock, one-third cup tomato puree, one-fourth teaspoon salt, pepper, one-eighth teaspoon soda. Mix stock, tomato and cream. Bring to boiling point and add seasonings. Serves eight. It is economy of time to make sufficient stock for clear soup for a second dinner. The meat from the soup-making, if packed in a mold, well seasoned and covered with stock, will make excellent jellied veal.

Strawberry Sauce—Crush the berries in a bowl and add enough powdered sugar to sweeten. Beat whipping cream stiff and fold in the fruit and it is ready to serve with slices of your favorite cake. The whipped cream makes a much larger amount of dessert when you have only a small amount of fruit.

SUGGESTIONS
For the Marble Fan

Does your boy skin his knuckles playing marbles? One family solved the problem by taking a lady's old glove (for the right hand) and cutting the worn fingers off. Now the boy slips this on, fastens it with the clasp of the glove and plays marbles to his heart's desire without skinning his knuckles.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—Sailing dates have been announced for the three State Department officials recently named for diplomatic posts in Europe. They will take up their new duties in May.

Leland Harrison, assistant secretary of state, who goes to Stockholm as minister to Sweden, will sail on the Leviathan on April 30.

J. Butler Wright, assistant secretary of state, who will be minister to Hungary, and Hugh Wilson, former chief of the bureau of current information, who will be minister to Switzerland, will sail on May 21.

To say that a man has no vices is not always to say that he has any virtues.

OLD FOLKS NOW ESCAPE PAINS

Yearsago old age was feared. Pains, stiffness, feebleness, senility and suffering came with it. Doctors and medicine gave little or no relief. Few knew the cause, thousands being treated for diseases they did not have. No wonder so many died prematurely. Today science tells us that system poisoning, (due to a lazy colon and wrong treatment for constipation) recognized as Toxemia, is the malady that brings sickness, premature weakness and untold suffering, both early and late in life.

But progress in bacteriology and the introduction of PARTOLA, a mild, pleasant laxative and internal antiseptic, is saving legions of people the pangs of worry, disease and misery formerly so prevalent between the ages of 40 and 70. All good druggists sell regular box of PARTOLA at 30¢. Double size 60¢.
